

Seventh-day Adventist Sabbath School Bible Study Guide for the First Quarter of 2022

This is a review of the entire Seventh-day Adventist Adult Teachers Sabbath School Bible Study Guide (SBSBG) for the first quarter of 2022 under the Theme Last Days: the Message of Holiness.<sup>1</sup> In this SBSBG, eight different Bibles were used two of which are Roman Catholic Bibles. I counted the number of times each was used. I did not count them twice as they could be off a little. I did not count Bibles quoted in quotations from various books. When a text support of a verse was quoted that would have been there were marked without any indication of what version it was from, I didn't count it. The numbers were as follows:

New King James Version (NKJV): 14

King James Version (KJV): 1

New American Standard Bible (NASB): 16

New Revised Standard Version (NRSV): 143

New International Version (NIV): 11

English Standard Version (ESV): 44

Author's Translations (Greek, Latin): 2

Hebrew: 1

Two secondary texts were from the NKJV, one was from the NIV, one was from the ESV and one could have been from either the new Bible (more about that later).

The NKJV and ESV are Roman Catholic Bibles. Except for the KJV, the rest of the Bibles are essentially Roman Catholic Bibles though as the best of my knowledge, they never received the official approval of the Roman Catholic Church.

Page numbers referenced will be as in the standard Bibles of the SBSBG, unless otherwise noted.

Letter B. The Letter to the Hebrews and to Us

The "principal contributor" to this SBSBG was Felix Carter who is a professor at Andrews University. Page 1 of the teachers edition says that "the teachers edition comments were written by" Edward Gillies who is professor at Andrews University. Felix was more of a role of editor than just friend. Edward refers strongly in the SBSBG to the "Teachers Comments" section on page 11 & passage quoted from the SBSBG throughout comments.

"And have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the power of the age to come." Hebrews 6:1 from the NRSV.

"And have tasted the good word of God, and the power of the world to come," Hebrews 6:1 from the KJV.

Ferret, 2023-07-20 The Seventh day Adventist church formally organized in America in 1863 is today one of the fastest growing Protestant movements in the world and defines itself as a prophetic remnant raised up and commissioned by God to teach and preach a final message of warning to the world before the imminent return of Christ From its beginnings however a sense of failure was built into the success of the fledgling movement In order to preserve the message the imminent return of Christ Adventists had to erect institutions based on continuity and permanence A dilemma emerged medical institutions built to be conducive for separation from the world faced a this worldly reality filled with requirements from various state entities registration approval and so forth Thus Adventist medical institutions confronted constant challenges to their denominational and theological uniqueness The emergence of this dilemma between aspirations of separateness and this worldly reality was especially evident in the battle for Adventism s sectarian identity ethos and future at the turn of the twentieth century between Ellen G White a cofounder of the movement and Dr John H Kellogg an Adventist administrator and surgeon who sought to desectarianize the movement Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information
