Diary of Alpha Kappa Psi, 1983 Masculinities in Contemporary American Culture Thomas Keith, 2017-01-12
Masculinities in Contemporary American Culture offers readers a multidisciplinary intersectional overview of masculinity studies that includes both theoretical and applied lenses Keith combines current research with historical perspectives to demonstrate the contexts in which masculine identities have come evolved With an emphasis on popular culture particularly film TV video games and music this text invites students to examine their gendered sensibilities and discuss the ways in which different forms of media appeal to toxic masculinity Strong Brands, Strong Relationships Susan Fournier, Michael J Breazeale, Jill Avery, 2015-06-12 From the editor team of the ground breaking Consumer Brand Relationships Theory and Practice comes this new volume Strong Brands Strong Relationships is a collection of innovative research and management insights that build upon the foundations of the first book but takes the study of brand relationships outside of traditional realms by applying new theoretical frameworks and considering new contexts The result is an expanded and better informed account of people s relationships with brands and a demonstration of the important and timely implications of this evolving sub discipline A range of different brand relationship environments are explored in the collection including online digital spaces consumer collectives global brands luxury brands branding in terrorist organizations and the brand relationships of men and transient consumers This book attends to relationship endings as well as their beginnings providing a full life cycle perspective While the first volume focused on positive relationship benefits this collection explores dysfunctional dynamics adversarial and politically charged relationships and those that are harmful to well being Evocative constructs are leveraged including secrets betrayals anthropomorphism lying infidelity retaliation and bereavement The curated collection provides both a deeper theoretical understanding of brand relationship phenomena and ideas for practical application from experiments and execution in commercial practice Strong Brands Strong Relationships will be the perfect read for marketing faculty and graduate students interested in branding dynamics as well as managers responsible for stewarding brands Who's who in America Harriet L. Tiger, 1995 Who's who in the South and Southwest, 1991 Includes names from the States of Alabama Arkansas the District of Columbia Florida Georgia Kentucky Louisiana Mississippi North Carolina Oklahoma South Carolina Tennessee Texas and Virginia and Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands Who's who of American Women Marquis Who's Who, 1973 Norton & Hartford's Ithaca City Directory, 1964 Before You Pledge: Essential Information You Should Know About the Divine Nine Dr. Michael J. R. Winfield, Before You Pledge Essential Information You Should Know About the Divine Nine is an important read for all those considering joining a Black Greek Letter Organization or for anyone wanting to simply learn about the origin of this august body of black men and women The dawn of the twentieth century brought many challenges to young African American students seeking enrollment at all white college campuses Intense racial prejudice forced many black students to leave predominantly white universities And at the same time on Historically Black College campuses the desire for fellowship through shared social experiences led to the rise of Black Greek life starting with Cornell University in New York Alpha Phi Alpha the first black fraternity formed at a predominantly white university in 1906 would point the way for similar organizations to develop Between 1906 and 1922 eight Black Greek Letter Organizations were formed with a ninth in 1963 Known collectively as the Divine Nine these five fraternities and four sororities would go on to shape the course of Black America Together these young black men and women would face down racial prejudice take the lead in the fight for social justice in the end reshape the American cultural landscape Finally no other group of people can claim to have the sheer degree of accomplishments in all areas of human activity in the United States and in many other parts of the world compared to the Divine Nine

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority -Sixty Years Of Service Marjorie H. Parker, The Kappa Alpha Journal, 1913

The Timeless Service of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Upsilon Delta Omega Chapter, 2015-02-17

The essence of this book is to portray a chronological outline of the history of the Upsilon Delta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. The story starts with the interest group that had desires to start an organization in the south Jersey area that would follow the guidelines of Alpha Kappa Alpha regarding community service. This book will give the reader an overview of the process that it took this particular group of like-minded women to initiate, follow up, and execute their plan. Once the chapter became official, the book highlights the various administrations that were elected to guide the members through a series of programs that varied every four years. The programs have been focused on family education, economic security, social justice, and global hunger. The reader will have a better understanding of how the Upsilon Delta Omega Chapter has a mission to have a positive impact on the surrounding communities by offering countless free workshops, hosting picnics and seminars for family shelters, and providing scholarships to deserving students that are attending college. These events are vividly captured with photos and highlighted with media articles.

The Far Western Region's History of Timeless Service Barbara D. Trotter, Robin R. Thomas, Diane E. Peete, Natalie Bunkley, 2014-04-12

In 1920, college student Ida Louise Jackson conceived of organizing a chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha on the campus of the University of California Berkeley for young Negro college women. An interest club was formed, and in 1921 the National Office dispatched Soror Inez Wood Fairfax to the Northern California area to organize and to officiate the chartering of the first Alpha Kappa Alpha chapter west of the Mississippi river. Rho chapter. The book is presented chronologically with the Undergraduate chapters, Graduate chapters, and Regional Directors presented together in a unified timeline which mirrors the development of the Far Western Region. Regional Director Barbara Denson Trotter's dynamic leadership focused on a theme of doing Big Things within the Far Western Region. Undergraduates have been doing big things in the programs and leadership of AKA. In the first two years of this administration, the Far Western Region undergraduates have increased participation in the AKA Leadership Fellows Program and have been selected for the prestigious AKA Arbor Day Internship Program and Peace Corps Campus Ambassador program. Undergraduates have blossomed in Undergraduate Cluster Co-Coordinator positions. Graduate chapters of the Far Western Region have also been recognized for doing big things. Between 2012 and 2014, seven chapters were selected as Signature Sites as part of the MLK Service for Peace Program.
