Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing Jürgen Hesselbach, Christoph Herrmann, 2011-03-19 The 18th CIRP International Conference on Life Cycle Engineering LCE 2011 continues a long tradition of scientific meetings focusing on the exchange of industrial and academic knowledge and experiences in life cycle assessment product development sustainable manufacturing and end of life management The theme Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing addresses the need for engineers to develop solutions which have the potential to address global challenges by providing products services and processes taking into account local capabilities and constraints to achieve an economically socially and environmentally sustainable society in a global perspective Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing do not only involve products or services that are changed for a local market by simple substitution or the omitting of functions Products and services need to be addressed that ensure a high standard of living everywhere Resources required for manufacturing and use of such products are limited and not evenly distributed in the world Locally available resources local capabilities as well as local constraints have to be drivers for product and process innovations with respect to the entire life cycle The 18th CIRP International Conference on Life Cycle Engineering LCE 2011 serves as a platform for the discussion of the resulting challenges and the collaborative development of new scientific ideas

Environmental Policy, Governance and Politics Prakash Chand Kandpal, 2024-07-26 This book traces the development environment discourse in India and examines the multi layered interaction between society and nature in the light of the role of the state judiciary and the civil society Through an array of perspectives the volume challenges the conventional approach to understanding the environmental politics in South Asia without considering the role of the civil society and other informal actors which has radically altered the conventional articulation of the phenomenon The volume underlines distinct structural characteristics of developmental politics in India and the social concerns and challenges which come in the way of environmental policy and governance in India. It is a meaningful intervention in unearthing significant socio-political and economic processes which are critical to the environmental governance in India. The book will not only be helpful in studying the state of policy administration and politics of environmental discourse in India but also guide the policymakers to explore the sustainable ways of environmental governance in South Asia. Insightful and lucid, this book will be useful to the students, researchers and faculty working in the field of political science, public administration, public policy, political sociology, political economy and governance studies. It will also be an invaluable and interesting reading for those interested in South Asian studies.

Global Issues and Innovative Solutions in Healthcare, Culture, and the Environment Merviö, Mika, 2020-06-12. Despite the development of environmental initiatives, healthcare and cultural assimilation in today's global market, significant problems in these areas remain throughout various regions of the world. As countries continue to transition into the modern age, areas across Asia and Africa have begun implementing modern solutions in order to benefit their individual societies and keep pace with the surrounding world. Significant research is needed in order to understand current issues that persist across the globe and what is being done to solve them. Global Issues and Innovative Solutions in Healthcare, Culture, and the Environment is an essential reference source that discusses worldwide conflicts within healthcare and environmental development as well as modern resolutions that are being implemented. Featuring research on topics such as health insurance reform, sanitation development and cultural freedom, this book is ideally designed for researchers, policymakers, physicians, government officials, sociologists, environmentalists, anthropologists, academicians, practitioners and students seeking coverage on global societal challenges in the modern age.

Ecologies of Urbanism in India Anne M. Rademacher, K. Sivaramakrishnan, 2013-03-01. Essays follow rapidly proliferating and resource-intensive Indian urbanism in everyday environments. Case studies on nature conservation in cities, urban housing and slum development, waste management, urban planning and contestations over the quality of air, water and sanitation in Delhi and Mumbai illuminate urban ecology perspectives throughout the twentieth century. The collection highlights how struggles over the environment and one's quality of life in urban centers are increasingly framed in terms of their future place in a landscape of global sustainability. The text brings historical particularity and ethnographic nuance to questions of urban ecology and offers novel insight into theoretical and practical debates on urbanism and sustainability.
