Transpositions Alison Rice,2021-10-15 This publication benefited from the support of the Institute for Scholarship in the Liberal Arts at the University of Notre Dame This collective volume concentrates on the concept of transposition exploring its potential as a lens through which to examine recent Francophone literary cinematic theatrical musical and artistic creations that reveal multilingual and multicultural realities The chapters are composed by leading scholars in French and Francophone Studies who engage in interdisciplinary reflections on the ways transcontinental movement has influenced diverse genres It begins with the premise that an attentiveness to migration has inspired writers artists filmmakers playwrights and musicians to engage in new forms of translation in their work Their own diverse backgrounds combine with their awareness of the itineraries of others to have an impact on the innovative languages that emerge in their creative production These contemporary figures realize that migratory actualities must be transposed into different linguistic and cultural contexts in order to be legible and audible in order to be perceptible either for the reader the listener or the viewer The novels films plays works of art and musical pieces that exemplify such transpositions adopt inventive elements that push the limits of formal composition in French This work is therefore often inspiring as it points in evocative ways toward fluid influences and a plurality of interactions that render impossible any static conception of being or belonging

Worldwide Women Writers in Paris Alison Rice,2021 A study based on a set of filmed interviews with Francophone women writers in Paris that explores the literary phenomenon of an unprecedented number of women from around the world who have moved to Paris and become authors of written works in French

Graphic Narratives of Resistance Charly Verstraet,Jennifer Boum Make,2025-08-31 This edited volume sheds light on the unique capacity of the comics medium for redrawing histories and for exploring hidden forbidden or imagined spaces Studying a variety of texts from the French speaking world it considers how bandes dessinées BD and graphic novels can highlight environmental gender racial religious political and social questions It also demonstrates how BD can offer

readers new perspectives through formal experiment and through reworking and subverting dominant iconographies The contributions in this volume showcase how the comic medium through the combination of text and image engages with notions of voice power bias and perspective and can be used as a pedagogical tool and a form of resistance to discuss diversity decolonisation inclusion and social justice issues

Gender and the Spatiality of Blackness in Contemporary AfroFrench Narratives Polo B. Moji, 2022-03-29 This book approaches the study of AfroEurope through narrative forms produced in contemporary France a location which richly illustrates race in European spaces The book adopts a transdisciplinary lens that combines critical black and urban geographies intersectional feminism and textual analysis to explore the spatial negotiations of black women in France It assesses literature film and music as narrative forms and engages with the sociocultural and political contexts from which they emerge Through the figure of the black flâneuse and the analytical framework of walking as method the book goes beneath spectacular representations of ghettoised banlieues televised protests and shipwrecked migrants to analyse the spatiality of blackness in the everyday It argues that the material discursive framing of black flânerie as both relational and embodied movements renders visible a politics of place embedded in everyday micro struggles of raced sexed subjects Foregrounding expressive modes and forms that have traditionally received little critical attention outside of the French and francophone world this book will be relevant to academics researchers writers students activists and readers with interests
