

ACTIONS TO LEARN

• Folded Hands

When speaking in public, people often become self-conscious about their hands, not knowing what to do with them. This must & ought to be changed. One about his hands, but must self-conscious that will become. Luckily, servers don't have this problem. There is a simple rule you should follow during the Mass: When your hands aren't in use, they should be folded—except when you're seated.

Here is how to fold your hands:

1. Put one palm against the other.
 2. Place your left thumb over the knuckle of your right thumb.
 3. Keep your elbows near your body.
 4. Keep the elbows near the body.
 5. Hold your hands in front of your breast, with your fingers pointing upward at a 45-degree angle.
- Your hands should be folded in this manner whenever you are genuflecting or kneeling.

• Sign of the Cross

As a young Roman emperor named Constantine the Great, knowing his father, he saw a vision of a flaming cross in the sky and saw these words: "In this sign you shall conquer." This vision led him to convert to Christianity. He was the first emperor to convert to Christianity, and he became a Christian.

The Sign of the Cross is the first religious act learned by a Christian. It is a sign of faith, and it is a sign of hope. For those reasons, it should be made frequently and thoughtfully.

1. Begin with folded hands.
2. Place your left hand on the breast.
3. Place your right hand straight, touch your forehead with your left hand.
4. Touch your right hand with straight, touch your forehead with your left hand as you say, "In the name of the Father..."
5. Touch your right hand with straight, touch your forehead with your left hand as you say, "and of the Son..."
6. Touch your right hand with straight, touch your forehead with your left hand as you say, "and of the Holy Spirit..."
7. As you return your hands to the folded position...
