Alternative Ulsters Conversations On Identity:

Alternative Ulsters Mark Carruthers,2014-04-01 Excellent Thought provoking A must read Belfast Telegraph Fascinating Irish Times Mark Carruthers has done something remarkably clever and refreshing A very important book Belfast News Letter The best political book of the year Alex Kane Ulster is an ambiguous and complex place With six of its nine counties in Northern Ireland and three in the Republic of Ireland it is perhaps most readily associated with the Troubles of the past four decades It is also however a place with a rich literary musical and sporting heritage Its people represent a surprising mix of cultural identities religious ideologies and political allegiances There is no one settled Ulster identity but as this collection of conversations bears out there are many areas where experiences and beliefs overlap even though people come from very different backgrounds and traditions In Alternative Ulsters the broadcaster Mark Carruthers interviews a wide range of high profile writers actors journalists and politicians each of them with an enduring Ulster connection He uses his finely tuned skills as an interviewer to draw each contributor into a personal reflection on identity The stories and experiences that helped shape and influence each of the thirty six interviewees are presented here in a series of colourful lively and at times deeply moving exchanges Together these conversations with those who know the place best explore Ulster in the twenty first century revealing a freshness of thought and a richness of culture that rarely make the headlines

NEGOTIATING IDENTITY Anthony D. Buckley,Mary Catherine Kenney,1995-10-17 Contending that Northern Ireland is not composed of two separate cultures but rather of two opposing groups manipulating a shared culture Negotiating Identity contributes to a specifically anthropological theory of ethnicity and identity Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts,2007-10 Thinking on the Edge: An Interdisciplinary Look at Ideological Extremism Jocelyn J.
