This question is complex in a period of deep evolutions of teaching resources with the proficiency of online resources in particular. How do teachers learn from these materials and in which ways do they tailor them for their use and pupil learning? Teachers collect resources, select, transform, share, implement and revise them. Drawing from the French term ingénierie documentaire we call these processes documentation. The literal English translation is to work with documents but the meaning it carries is richer. Documentation refers to the complex and interactive ways that teachers work with resources in class and out of class individually but also collectively      Learning, Creating, and Using Knowledge Joseph D.
