Getting to Third Date

Kelly McClymer,2006-04-15 Could a forgotten cutie be Katelyn s newest catch Katelyn Spears is a firm believer in the two date rule First dates are so awkward every guy deserves a second chance But a third Not unless he s got serious Romeo potential Enter Tyler Tyler thinks Katelyn s rule is too harsh He dares her to go back through her Little Pink Book and grant a third date to all the two date duds Oh and she should report back to the whole school via her newspaper column Standing by her policy and determined to prove Tyler wrong Katelyn makes a few phone calls But will any of her old flames rekindle a romance   Genre, Gender and the Effects of Neoliberalism Betty Kaklamanidou,2013 The romantic comedy has long been regarded as an inferior film genre by critics and scholars alike accused of maintaining a strict narrative formula which is considered superficial and highly predictable However the genre has resisted the negative scholarly and critical comments and for the last three decades the steady increase in the numbers of romantic comedies position the genre among the most popular ones in the globally dominant Hollywood film industry The enduring power of the new millennium romantic comedy proves that therein lies something deeper and worth investigating This new work draws together a discussion of the full range of romantic comedies in the new millennium exploring the cycles of films that tackle areas including teen romance the new career woman women as action heroes motherhood and pregnancy and the mature millennium woman The work evaluates the structure of these different types of films and examines in detail the ways in which they choose to frame key contemporary issues which influence how we analyse global politics including gender class race and society Providing a rich understanding of the complexities and potential of the genre for understanding contemporary society this work will be of interest to students and scholars of cultural film studies gender politics and world politics in general
