The LITA Leadership Guide Carl Antonucci, Sharon Clapp, 2017-04-20 The LITA Leadership Guide from the American Library Association division charged with information technology brings together three important professional development topics leadership entrepreneurship and technology in one volume uniting theory practice and case studies from experienced colleagues in the field Topics include cultivating creativity career pivots forecasting and planning for change keeping tech and leadership skills ahead of the curve and incorporating lessons and knowledge from across sectors Additional concepts include professional development evaluating risk overcoming barriers to innovation and seeding success in your career and organization The book will help librarians at every level of the career ladder and will supplement leadership and skill-based training workshops Library leadership teams interested in the development of their staff as a means of improving their organizational performance will find this book to provide context for growth training and collaboration This book provides big picture concepts that affect the many stages of a librarian's career Librarian as Leader Librarian as Entrepreneur and Librarian as Technologist and thus is suitable for staff development discussion groups or courses This LITA Guide will help librarians understand how to chart their career development across these three foundational platforms and become familiar with how peers have successfully created positive change for themselves and their libraries as leaders entrepreneurs and technologists Industrial Education, 1989 Informal Politics in the Middle East Suzi Mirgani, 2021-09-30 The culture of politics within any system of governance is influenced by how state and society interact and how these relationships are mediated by existing political institutions whether formal or informal The chapters in this volume highlight two broad types of informal political engagement in the Middle East civil action that works in tandem with the state apparatus and civil action that poses a challenge to the state In both cases these activities can and do achieve tangible results for particular groups of people as well as for the state For many informal politics and civil mobilisation are not a choice but a necessity to secure collectively some kind of social security through communal reciprocity and everyday activism Ironically Middle Eastern authorities often turn a blind eye to informal organising because self help schemes allow certain social groups to survive reducing their instinct to make demands of or seek support from the state People are discouraged from political action and dissent yet they are simultaneously encouraged to seek their own betterment often leading to politicised groups and associations By analysing these formations the contributors shed light on informal politics in the region
