Clio Maurizio Peleggi, 2018-08-06 A Sarong for Clio testifies to an ongoing intellectual dialogue between its ten contributors and Craig J Reynolds who inspired these essays. Conceived as a tribute to an innovative scholar dedicated teacher and generous colleague it is this volume's ambition to make a concerted intervention on Thai historiography and Thai studies more generally by pursuing in new directions ideas that figure prominently in Reynolds's scholarship. The writings gathered here revolve around two prominent themes in Reynolds's scholarship: the nexus of historiography and power and Thai political and business cultures often so intertwined as to be difficult to separate. The chapters examine different types of historical texts: Thai political discourse and political culture and the media production of consumer culture. Contributors: Chris Baker, Patrick Jory, University of Queensland, Brisbane; Tamara Loos, Cornell University; Yoshinori Nishizaki, National University of Singapore; James Ockey, University of Canterbury; Maurizio Peleggi, National University of Singapore; Pasuk Phongpaichit, Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok; Kasian Tejapir, Thammasat University, Bangkok; Villa Vilaithong, Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok; Thongchai Winichakul, University of Wisconsin, Madison.

Decolonizing EFL Writing

Education Shizhou Yang, 2025-01-15 Arguably the first book length exploration of decolonizing English as a Foreign Language EFL writing education this novel volume uses poetic autoethnography to provide a situated dynamic and complex view of multilingual writers through their second language L2 academic writing and creative writing. Responding to contemporary calls to decolonize L2 writing as a field and diversify academic writing for multilingual students this book is the first of its kind to explore the decolonization of EFL writing education from a Global Southern context. Chapters critically and creatively consider issues of educational technologies, translanguaging, academic writing, epistemology and pedagogy from two writing courses from a Global South and classroom writing ecology perspective. Using poetic autoethnography alongside data from authentic writing classrooms in Thailand the book posits that emergent translanguaging literature can be cultivated for decolonization purposes critiquing and providing decolonial options in such areas as monolingual ideology, freewriting, student identity and mind. Empowering EFL writing teachers to raise students' critical awareness of issues such as writing culture and coloniality this book will be of key interest to researchers, scholars and postgraduate students in the fields of applied linguistics, Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL), L2 writing, multilingual education and language policy and planning.
