

AP English Language and Composition - Argument Essay Practice Prompt

Background:

In an increasingly digital world, discussions surrounding privacy and security have intensified. Some argue that government surveillance is a necessary tool to protect citizens from threats, while others contend that such surveillance infringes upon individual freedoms and privacy.

Prompt:

In a well-developed essay, take a position on the extent to which government surveillance is justified in modern society. Develop your argument with evidence from history, current events, literature, or your own experience.

Guidelines:

- Establish a clear, defensible thesis that responds to the prompt.
- Develop your argument with appropriate, specific evidence and thoughtful commentary.
- Address counterarguments or alternative perspectives where appropriate.
- Demonstrate a sophisticated understanding of the issue through logical reasoning and effective rhetorical choices.

- E - Evidence (Connect your argument to a broader issue or context)
- A - Argument (Develop your argument with evidence and reasoning)
- I - Illustrate (Provide specific examples or evidence) essays will be scored according to the essay structure the clarity of your writing and the extent to which you have answered the question

Scoring the Exam The multiple choice section of the exam is scored by crediting each correct answer with one point and deducting one fourth of a point for each incorrect answer Unanswered questions receive neither a credit nor a deduction The free response essays are graded by more than 5 000 instructors and professors who gather together each June for a week of non stop AP essay grading Each essay booklet is read and scored by four graders Each grader provides a score for the individual essays This score is a number on a scale from 0 to 9 0 being the lowest and 9 the highest The graders are not aware of each other s scores When the essays have been graded four times the scores are averaged one score for each of the three essays so that the free response section is composed of three scores The three essays are weighted equally and the total weight of the free response section is fifty five percent of the total score The multiple choice section accounts for forty five percent of the total score Each year the overall grades may fluctuate because the grading scale depends upon the performance of students in past AP administrations The following method of scoring along with the corresponding chart will give you an approximation of your score It will not indicate the exact score you would get on the actual AP English Language Composition Exam
