Lefty's Journey Ralph DeFalco,2011-11-22 When Ralph arrived at the row house in the South Bronx he had to step back as his family made their way up the steps They started to creak as they carried their luggage and all that went through his mind was that they would collapse if he also climbed those steps Where he came from all the steps were made of either marble or granite How in the world would these wooden stairs hold up Ralph had been surrounded by the unpolluted blue Mediterranean that reflected the ever present blue sky If the temperature became too hot he cooled off in that blue water to his heart s content Now in the bowels of the South Bronx the only thing that turned blue was his demeanor His only relief from the stifling summer heat along with some of the boys from the neighborhood would be to illegally open a fire hydrant when the police were not around
