Writing Prompts

- Do you enjoy public speaking? Why or why not?
  - Which is more important—book smarts or people smarts? Why? Which do you have more of?
  - Think of something you're good at, and write about how you could teach someone else to do the same thing.
  - Write about a time when you changed someone else's opinion on a topic. How did you do it?
  - What is something your parents don't understand about your life? Why do you think they have trouble relating with you on this issue?
  - Write a short story about a fictional city where everyone has one surprising thing in common.
  - Think of one major difference between your experience in school and your parents' experience, and write about the differences.
  - Do you consider yourself to be an organized person? Why or why not?
  - What are you grateful for? Make a list of things that make you feel thankful and choose one to write about.
  - What are the pros and cons of homework? Should teachers require students to do homework?
  - What is your all-time favorite memory? What makes it so important to you?
  - Choose an object that defines you—and write about why it suits your personality.
  - Choose an object that defines your best friend—and write about why it suits his or her personality.
  - As you've gotten older, what is one important thing you've learned that you could share with a younger student?
  - Write a short story based on what happens after a popular tall tale or fairy tale has ended.
  - What do you want to be when you grow up? What about this career appeals to you?
  - What good qualities have you inherited from your parents?
  - What bad qualities have you inherited from your parents?
  - What is something that you've always wanted to know, but haven't wanted to ask?
  - What is your favorite part of the school day? What do you like about it?
  - Write about a time when you successfully kept a New Year's resolution—or write about why you don't make resolutions.
  - Are you a morning person or a night person? Why?
  - Write a poem about a place you once visited, and describe the place using all five senses.

 O'Beirne Milner,Lucy Floyd Morcock Milner,2008 Bridging English fourth edition is a comprehensive English methods text that is structured on James Moffett s conception of the universe of discourse in the teaching of English talking and listening writing and reading The textbook combines theory and practice that is overarching structures with particular instructional strategies It provides prospective teachers with a huge array of approaches and activities that are active constructivist and student centered It mirrors that emphasis with boxed Invitations to Reflection that continually survey its readers about their experiences of English classrooms their new learnings as they read the text and their projection into classroom teaching of their own It takes into account the range of student learners a teacher will teach from the gifted to the reluctant and struggling It addresses the special needs of English language learners It also anticipates the need of its readers prospective teachers to put theory and method into practice by designing and delivering effective units and lessons In several chapters on pedagogy it helps them answer questions such as How do I actually teach writing design a unit evaluate student learning
