Islamic Education in Britain Alison Scott-Baumann, Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor, 2017-03-23 The Western world often fears many aspects of Islam without the knowledge to move forward On the other hand there are sustained and complex debates within Islam about how to live in the modern world with faith Alison Scott Baumann and Sariya Contractor Cheruvallil here propose solutions to both dilemmas with a particular emphasis on the role of women Challenging existing beliefs about Islam in Britain this book offers a paradigm shift based on research conducted over 15 years The educational needs within several groups of British Muslims were explored resulting in the need to offer critical analysis of the provision for the study of classical Islamic Theology in Britain Islamic Education in Britain responds to the dissatisfaction among many young Muslim men and women with the theological secular split and their desire for courses that provide combinations of these two strands of their lived experience as Muslim British citizens Grounded in empirical research the authors reach beyond the meta narratives of secularization and orientalism to demonstrate the importance of the teaching and learning of classical Islamic studies for the promotion of reasoned dialogue interfaith and intercultural understanding in pluralist British society Indian National Bibliography B. routine and we are losing the ability to tolerate this everyday tedium Using Sandi Mann's own ground breaking research into boredom this book tells the story of how we act react and cope when we are bored and argues that there is a positive side to boredom It can be a catalyst for humour fun reflection creativity and inspiration The radical solution to the boredom problem is to harness it rather than try to avoid it Allowing yourself time away from constant stimuli can enrich your life We should all embrace our boredom and see the upside of our downtime The Indian National Bibliography ,2017-04 Hilāl ,2014
