Helping My Kid Get Into Show Business - One Mom's Story Mom's Story Melinda Raymond, 2012-06-13

Recognizing her son's potential and seeing his deep desire to get into show business mom Melinda Raymond starts on a journey to try and figure out what she can do to help her son succeed in his dream Journaling along the way the book shares some humorous and stressful experiences while giving future stage moms the basic information they'll need to help their own talented kids it's an entertaining read with a lot of great ideas and gives insight into what it takes to be a stage mom    My First Monologue Book Kristen Dabrowski, 2006 This groundbreaking new series is for truly young actors monologues scenes and technique book for the elementary school set Each book builds on the one before it so skills grow as students grow Often young children are given work written for older actors that is difficult for them to understand and retain This material is comprehensible relatable and fun For all the young characters and performers there is finally a book for you And within this series an exciting collection that breaks down barriers Square pegs don't fit into round holes It's that simple Specifically for young actors of Hispanic descent M Ramirez has written a group of books for second third fourth generation immigrant kids who don't often feel included in a lot of the literature they're surrounded with References to abuelos abuelas and other cultural specifics help make these performance pieces a little more accessible to kids who might or might not be speaking English as a second language all with a specific flavor that will help young actors find their voices and stretch themselves performing pieces that speak not only about them but directly to them. Because of the Latino flavor incorporated into this material these kids can focus on what they are meant to focus on performing without any cultural barriers. KIDS These books tell you about how to act and give you some excellent characters to play. There are also many many games and activities. P S They may also make you the smartest kid you know. TEACHERS This series provides ample material for classroom use. In addition the Teacher's Guide will give tips and ideas to use in classrooms. PARENTS If you've got a natural performer in the house this book provides some simple pieces for auditioning, horsing around or performing in the living room. These books are both fun and educational. AGENTS MANAGERS These monologues are immediate and active with different emotions and levels within each monologue. Great for auditions. Everyday life was never so nutty. Inside you'll find imaginative what if pieces for would be princesses, cowboys, robots and superheroes as well as real life issues like unfair bedtimes, making new friends and the horrible taste of broccoli. At this stage in life there are lots of firsts too like going to a new school and losing your teeth so there are plenty of topics for children to connect with. short accessible selections on common topics such as games, families, food, friends, school and wishes. The true to life experiences and emotions are delivered in a child's voice and run the gamut from funny to serious. The book has several classroom applications including public speaking, memorization, journal writing and storytelling. While there are other monologue titles for elementary children the selections in My First Monologue Book are much shorter and easier to memorize or analyze.

One on One: Playing with a Purpose

Bob Shuman, Stephen Fife, 2013-05-01

Kids of today face a different world and a different set of challenges than did the children of even 15 years ago. Playing with a Purpose features a collection of monologues that reflects these new attitudes and circumstances. Highly diversified in its view of the family and the child's place in the world, the monologues have been chosen from several sources from contemporary playwrights and screenwriters from YouthPlays, a new company that specializes in publishing cutting edge plays for the youth market and from such conservatories for young actors as The Playgroup, the Los Angeles based training center run by Gary Spatz the leading acting coach for performers ages 6 to 16 Playing with a purpose is an idea that arose from Fife s work with young actors over the course of several decades Raising a Star Nancy Carson,Jacqueline Shannon,2013-07-30 So your child wants to be a star But what does it really take Money Looks Tons of time Not necessarily Nancy Carson a children s agent who has worked in the industry for more than twenty five years and has guided the careers of such celebrities as Britney Spears Mischa Barton and even a young Cynthia Nixon dishes the facts on what it takes to break your child into the entertainment industry The first parents guide to getting kids into the business written by one of the industry s top children s agents Raising a Star is a complete step by step guide that will help parents navigate the murky waters of show business From how to find the right representative to what producers and directors are really looking for in children today Nancy Carson offers practical advice and anecdotes culled from her years of experience Raising a Star is the most candid and informative guide for parents who want to help make their child a star The Rising Stars' Guide for Show Biz Kids and Their Parents David Matis,1993-05-18 A guide to get children started in television Matis outlines preparing a resume and portfolio meeting an agent or personal manager and getting auditions Matis owns and operates Rising Stars a personal management agency for children in California Wild and Wacky L.
