Ritchie, 2018-05-03 Short summaries of 3 026 essays by Bill H Ritchie artist teacher and visionary drawn from his journals written between 1969 2009 He structured the headings of each article according an imaginary place he calls Emeralda imagining ten islands on a lake where he as a recipient of a mythical prize is encouraged to write freely about anything that seems important to an artist teacher and philosopher Mindful of the use of new technologies each essay summary has key index features which would allow a reader having a computer and optional CD ROM to retrieve the full text of any article Or using freely chosen keywords of their own find the articles which have those words in them Happiness and the Good Life Mike W. Martin, 2012-03 Philosopher Mike W Martin here examines the meaning of happiness by connecting it to the philosophical notion of the good life International Yearbook of Library and Information Management 2000-2001

G. E. Gorman, 2000-12-27 The International Yearbook of Library and Information Management is a newly commissioned thematic refereed annual covering emerging trends best practice and future scenarios in the broad field of library science and information management The inaugural volume of this authoritative new publication provides a timely and forward looking focus on the theme of collection management This broad subject area will be examined from a variety of perspectives including a narrative bibliography on the topic supported by a range of 18 historical analytical evaluative and provocative essays that tell us where we have been where we are and where we seem to be going Topics addressed include people principles and problems electronic publications access and acquisitions co operative collection management evaluation and weeding and preservation and archives Contributors are an internationally respected panel of researchers practitioners and academics Posthumanism and the Digital University Lesley Gourlay, 2020-12-10 It is a commonplace in educational policy and theory to claim that digital technology has transformed the university the nature of learning and even the essence of what it means to be a scholar or a student However these claims have not always been based on strong research evidence What are students and scholars actually doing in the day to day life of the digital university This book examines in detail how the world of the digital interacts with texts artefacts devices and humans in the contemporary university setting Weaving together perspectives from a range of thinkers and disciplinary sources Lesley Gourlay draws on ideas from posthuman and new materialist theory in particular to open up our understanding about how digital knowledge practices operate She proposes that digital engagement in the university should not be regarded as virtual or disembodied but instead may be understood as a complex set of entanglements of the body texts and material artefacts making a case that agency and the ways in which knowledge emerges should be regarded as more than human    Women in anti-doping sciences & integrity in sport: 2021/22 Andrea Petroczi,Angela Jo-Anne Schneider,Kim Nolte,2023-07-31
