A Partisans Daughter:

A Partisan's Daughter Louis de Bernières, 2008-12-04 A beautiful and unlikely love story about what unites us from the bestselling author of Captain Corelli's Mandolin Chris is in his forties bored lonely trapped in a loveless sexless marriage He is a stranger to the 1970s youth culture of London a stranger to himself on the night he invites a prostitute into his car Roza has recently moved to London from eastern Europe She is in her twenties but has already lived a life filled with danger misadventure romance and tragedy And though she is not a prostitute when she is propositioned by Chris she gets into his car anyway Over the next few months Roza tells Chris the stories of her past She is a fast talking Scheherazade saving her own life by telling it to Chris And he takes in her tales as if they were oxygen in an otherwise airless world But is Roza telling the truth Does it even matter Sublimely funny and moving Independent

Triangle Republics I Jonathan Kief, 2025-09-16 In

Korea the end of the Second World War in 1945 brought both liberation from Japanese colonial rule and the division of the nation by the triumphant Allies The peninsula was not only decoupled from its former colonial metropole but also carved up into two halves that were subsequently incorporated into the rival blocs of the emerging Cold War order Although the two Koreas are typically seen as isolated from each other texts continued to circulate between them with the assistance of Korean diasporic and other colleagues in Japan throughout the ensuing decades I Jonathan Kief follows the triangular flow of texts linking North Korea South Korea and Japan from 1945 until the 1980s revealing overlooked paths of interaction and exchange He highlights the creative ways in which poets playwrights novelists critics and academics crossed boundaries of language ideology genre and geography to challenge the stability of the Cold War By showing how writers in North and South Korea engaged in dialogue via the mediation of a multiethnic set of colleagues in Japan Triangle Republics offers a new perspective on this era emphasizing its vibrant dynamic and interconnected nature

Russian War Films Denise Jeanne Youngblood, 2007 A panoramic survey of nearly a century of Russian films on wars and wartime from World War I to more recent conflicts in Afghanistan and Chechnya with heavy emphasis on films pertaining to World War II

Representations of Child Soldiers in Contemporary African Narratives Ademola Adesola, 2024-09-11 In Representations of Child Soldiers in Contemporary African Narratives Ademola Adesola examines the dominant factors that writers privilege in their portrayals of child soldiering in sub Saharan Africa In his textual interpretive analyses of selected novels in the African child soldier genre Adesola contends that critical discussions of African child soldier literature have depended on the interpretive frameworks supplied by Western humanitarian discourses which oversimplify and de historicize experiences of war in Africa The author argues that such reductive decontextualization of war realities serve to champion a narrow vision of war in African contexts centered on a moral and humanitarian urge for Western intervention Regardless of whether the casus belli legitimating those wars are genuine or not those conflicts and children s involvement in them are understood within the same racist colonial and ethnocentric stereotypes about Africa that have been privileged in Western thought and the Western moral political imagination for centuries Thus in studying African child soldier narratives this book provides an alternative reading of novels whose settings feature African ethnopolitical conflicts such as in Sierra Leone Liberia Congo Brazzaville Nigeria notable for their exploitation of children for military ends The author maintains that these works are significant in the varying ways they reify and challenge the Western ideas of child and childhood as well as privilege child soldiers as social actors whose intricate makeups disavow being simply understood as innocent victims or irredeemable perpetrators of atrocities
