Sexual Violence Elizabeth L. Jeglic, Cynthia Calkins, 2016-10-24 The purpose of this edited volume is to examine the disconnect in the sexual violence prevention field between legislation research and practice The work is focused primarily on United States policies and initiatives with key case studies internationally Contributions show that current policies are mainly based on repeat offenders residence restrictions registration and notification statutes and post sentence initiatives While these initiatives address public fears they are not evidence based and do not necessarily reduce offending Research shows that post sentence policies may destabilize offenders and limit their ability to reintegrate with society at a critical period therefore increasing the chances of recidivism Furthermore the majority of sex crimes 95% are committed by first time offenders This innovative book is divided into two parts juxtaposing what is currently being done legislatively with what the research evidence suggests would be best practice Framed Sanford Levinson, 2012-04-03 In his widely acclaimed volume Our Undemocratic Constitution Sanford Levinson boldly argued that our Constitution should not be treated with sanctimonious reverence but as a badly flawed document deserving revision Now Levinson takes us deeper asking what were the original assumptions underlying our institutions and whether we accept those assumptions 225 years later In Framed Levinson challenges our belief that the most important features of our constitutions concern what rights they protect Instead he focuses on the fundamental procedures of governance such as congressional bicameralism the selection of the President by the electoral college or the dimensions of the President's veto power not to mention the near impossibility of amending the United States Constitution These seemingly settled and hardwired structures contribute to the now almost universally recognized dysfunctionality of American politics Levinson argues that we should stop treating the United States Constitution as uniquely exemplifying the American constitutional tradition We should be aware of the 50 state constitutions often interestingly different and perhaps better than the national model Many states have updated their constitutions by frequent amendment or by complete replacement via state constitutional conventions California's ungovernable condition has prompted serious calls for a constitutional convention This constant churn indicates that basic law often reaches the point where it fails and becomes obsolete Given the experience of so many states he writes surely it is reasonable to believe that the U S Constitution merits its own updating Whether we are concerned about making America more genuinely democratic or only about creating a system of government that can more effectively respond to contemporary challenges we must confront the ways our constitutions especially the United States Constitution must be changed in fundamental ways
