Doing a Master's Dissertation in TESOL and Applied Linguistics Lindy Woodrow, 2019-10-11 Doing a Master's Dissertation in TESOL and Applied Linguistics is a practical guide for master's students tackling research and research writing for the first time. Structured for use in class or as part of an independent study and divided into the four stages of designing, researching, writing up, and submitting a dissertation, this book carefully guides readers from the very beginning of producing a research proposal all the way through to assessment procedures and the provisions for resubmission. It covers publishing your dissertation and applying for higher research degrees, including funding, addresses all the most fundamental concerns students have about master's dissertations, including how to choose a topic and conducting a literature review, draws upon examples from master's dissertations from the UK, US, and Australia, and provides numerous how-to tables and checklists. It includes activities and resources to facilitate master's research and dissertation writing, as well as FAQs and solutions at the end of each chapter. Tailored for MA students in TESOL or Applied Linguistics, this book is essential reading for students on these degrees around the world, as well as for their supervisors and programme directors.

The Broadview Guide to Writing - Sixth Edition Don LePan, Doug Babington, Maureen Okun, 2015-06-11 Increasingly, writing handbooks are seen as over-produced and overpriced. One stands out: The Broadview Guide to Writing is published in an elegant but simple format and sells for roughly half the price of its fancier-looking competitors. For the sixth edition, the coverage of MLA, APA, Chicago, and CSE styles of documentation has been substantially expanded, as well as updated. Also expanded is coverage of academic argument of writing and critical thinking of writing about literature of paragraphing of how to integrate quoted material into one's own work of balance and parallelism and of issues of gender race religion etc in writing The chapter Seeing and Meaning Reading and Writing About Visual Images is entirely new The online materials including the selection of interactive exercises have also been revised considerably English Simplified Blanche Ellsworth, John A. Higgins, 2010 This handbook covers almost every major writing problem At 64 pages it's a concise and inexpensive way for readers to improve their writing The Ninth Edition covers the essentials of paragraph and essay writing ESL tips and material on research writing as well as an extended section on the three most common errors in English fragments run ons and comma splices The book also includes enhanced coverage on electronic research on the Internet and a revised section on word choice For anyone interested in learning about English and in improving his or her writing
