

HOW TO ORGANISE...

A FASHION SHOW

Equipment: Photographer, board (for writing on), clothes sorted into outfits and numbered, catalogue, tickets, iron and ironing board etc, accessories.

Lead time: 3-6 months - the longer the better.

Outlay: £300 plus.

Who the event is suitable for? Teenagers plus.

Frequency: Biannually, possibly annually.

Operating requirements: Someone to act as the host, people to look out for likely outfits to be modelled (visit charity shops), wardrobe, volunteers willing to act as models (both male and female and a variety of ages), people taking money at the end, suitable hall with staging, volunteer to take money from sales of clothes, volunteer to collect money/check tickets on the door, background music.

The venue

Some fashion shows are held in hotels where the decor and subtle lighting or large dining rooms or even ballrooms add to the general atmosphere. Halls and community centres would also be suitable. You have to try to gauge the size of the space you are likely to need, and what facilities are available - this should include plenty of chairs and somewhere for the models to change quickly. You can use the stage for modelling, but it would be much better to organise a catwalk down the middle of the audience. You could also consider a local shopping centre or town centre high street.

Time and date

This depends on what you are proposing to sell, as you should try to catch people at the start of the appropriate season. Most people prefer evenings.

The show

Ask local modelling agents or drama groups/schools if they can lend you staging blocks - or if they know where you can get some. Make sure the structure is safe - it should be about 2-2.5 feet above ground level, high enough for people to see the
