2nd Grade Literacy Pacing Guide:

What Every 2nd Grade Teacher Needs to Know Margaret Berry Wilson, 2010-08-10 You're teaching 2nd grade this year. What do you need to know? In a warm conversational style punctuated with anecdotes and examples from her own classrooms, Margaret Berry Wilson reviews second graders' common developmental characteristics and shares practical know-how on topics such as Arranging a circle desks and tables, Choosing and storing supplies, Scheduling a child-centered day and teaching daily routines, Planning special projects and field trips that maximize learning and build community, Understanding the special concerns of second graders' parents and finding the best ways to communicate with them. Curriculum and Teaching Dialogue Vol 22 Issue 1 & 2 Chara Haeussler Bohan, John L. Pecore, Franklin S. Allaire, 2020-08-13 Curriculum and Teaching Dialogue is the journal of the American Association of Teaching and Curriculum (AATC) founded on October 1, 1993. The AATC promotes the scholarly study of teaching and curriculum through conferences, journals, and member interactions, encouraging all analytical and interpretive approaches. From Rigorous Standards to Student Achievement Laura McCullough, Michael D. Rettig, Karen Santos, 2013-09-27 This book showcases strategies which support teachers and principals as they implement high standards for students. At the same time, it demonstrates how to meet the needs of diverse learners.

Brain Framing Dr. Linda Karges-Bone, 2011-09-01 Brain Framing is a book of ideas for thinking about thinking in the classroom: ideas to help us frame the brains of students in ways that are productive, powerful, and personal. This book will help teachers to engage brains in three fresh ways: framing student learning into more personalized experiences that utilize new research on the brain, the body, and the spirit; creating brain-friendly classroom environments that link sensory and cognitive experiences in ways that reduce stress for both the teacher and the student; and organizing content into meaningful chunks and layers that fit into the unique frames of students' brains. Teachers of English Learners Negotiating Authoritarian Policies Lucinda Pease-Alvarez, Katharine Davies Samway, 2012-02-07 In an effort to reverse the purported crisis in U.S. public schools, the federal government states that districts have mandated policies that favor standardized approaches to teaching and assessment. As a consequence, teachers have been relying on teacher-centered instructional approaches that do not take into consideration the needs, experiences, and interests of their students. This is particularly pronounced with English learners (ELs). The widespread implementation of these policies is particularly striking in California, where more than 25% of all public school students are ELs. This volume reports on three studies that explore how teachers of ELs in three school districts negotiated these policies. Drawing on sociocultural and poststructural perspectives on agency and power, the authors examine how contexts in which teachers of ELs lived and worked influenced the messages they constructed about these policies and mediated their decisions about policy implementation. The volume provides important insights into processes affecting the learning and teaching of ELs. 56th Yearbook of the National Reading Conference, 2007 Hybridity, Collaboration, and Resistance Jodene Michele Kersten, 2005 Catalog of Audiovisual Materials for Learning Disabilities
