Handbook of Diachronic Narratology Peter Hühn,John Pier,Wolf Schmid,2023-07-24 This handbook brings together 42 contributions by leading narratologists devoted to the study of narrative devices in European literatures from antiquity to the present Each entry examines the use of a specific narrative device in one or two national literatures across the ages whether in successive or distant periods of time Through the analysis of representative texts in a range of European languages the authors compellingly trace the continuities and evolution of storytelling devices as well as their culture specific manifestations In response to Monika Fludernik s 2003 call for a diachronization of narratology this new handbook complements existing synchronic approaches that tend to be ahistorical in their outlook and departs from postclassical narratologies that often prioritize thematic and ideological concerns A new direction in narrative theory diachronic narratology explores previously overlooked questions from the evolution of free indirect speech from the Middle Ages to the present to how changes in narrative sequence encoded the shift from a sacred to a secular worldview in early modern Romance literatures An invaluable new resource for literary theorists historians comparatists discourse analysts and linguists
