About the College Board

The College Board is a not-for-profit organization that prepares students for college success and opportunity. Founded in 1863, the College Board was created to expand access to higher education. Today, the membership association is made up of more than 6,000 of the world's leading educational institutions and is dedicated to preparing students and assisting in education. Furthermore, the College Board helps more than seven million students prepare for a successful transition to college through programs and services in college readiness and college success — including the SAT[®] and the Advanced Placement[®] Program[®]. The organization also serves the educational community through research and advocacy on behalf of students, educators, and schools.
