Joanne van Os was just twenty-two when she met Rod Ansell. At twenty-three, Rod was already a legend in Australia and around the world, having survived alone for two months without supplies in one of the harshest and most remote parts of northern Australia. To Joanne, Rod was a genuine hero who could do anything.

Joanne could make anything out of nothing told the funniest yarns had a philosophy on everything She married him and they had two beautiful sons who idolised their father Together they lived the tough life of outback bull catchers and cattle musterers But as time went on Joanne came to realise that Rod was both a complicated and deeply troubled man For the sake of her sons she never gave up on Rod even after their divorce but just how far he'd gone only became apparent when his life ended in tragedy out of his mind on drugs Rod became involved in a shootout in which a young police officer was killed How does someone whose extraordinary story of survival in the wild inspired so many Australians become a psychotic drug crazed gunman Joanne asks Outback Heart captures the Territory life on paper the dust the heat the struggle and the larger than life characters But it's also a deeply moving and powerful story of a love affair and a marriage and the pain when it all falls apart It's the story of Rod Ansell but even more it is Joanne's story of how a young naive woman grows up the hard way and has the most exhilarating and the most heartbreak times doing it Popular Mechanics ,2000 Automobile Magazine ,2006
