Raising Black Students' Achievement Through Culturally Responsive Teaching Johnnie McKinley,2011-03-30 In this book Johnnie McKinley presents the results of her in depth study of a group of teachers in grades 3 thru 8 who managed to radically narrow the achievement gap between their black and white students by using a set of culturally responsive strategies in their classrooms McKinley uses the educators own words and illustrative virtual walkthroughs of lessons in action to examine these strategies in detail In addition the book includes An overview of the research literature on effective responses to the achievement gap Instructions for conducting classroom walkthroughs including a series of feedback forms that teachers can use to conduct walkthroughs in their schools and A comprehensive guide to the author's Teaming for Culturally Responsive Classrooms TCRC model an innovative multistep framework for assessing the cultural responsiveness of teaching strategies in schools. Educators have been struggling for decades to remedy the disparity in academic outcomes between black and white students. This book shows how one remarkable group of teachers harnessed the power of culturally responsive teaching to do just that. By following the path outlined in Raising Black Students Achievement Through Culturally Responsive Teaching you too can help your black students to become engaged, self-confident and successful learners.
