Question 3: Argument
2020 Scoring Commentaries
(Applied to 2018 Student Responses)

Sample C

6/6 Points (A1 - B4 - C1)

Row A: 1/1

The response earned the point for Row A because it clearly takes a position that exploring the unknown is valuable. In the first paragraph the response sets up a connection with the quote in the prompt and then lays out the categories for the reasoning that will follow: “The exploration of the unknown has led to unprecedented scientific development, cultural development, and personal development alike.” The response is driven by the thesis throughout, cumulating in its clear articulation in the concluding sentence “The unknown has allowed the human race to develop, improve, and augment itself scientifically, culturally, and personally, and for those causes, it is clearly incredibly valuable.”

Row B: 4/4

The response earned 4 points for Row B because the evidence provided clearly relates to the thesis and the commentary that explains those connections is consistent and well-developed. While over the course of this response the argument becomes not just that “unexpected moments are ‘the most fulfilling’” but that the most beneficial and forward-thinking advancements come from challenging a status quo and engaging with the unknown. The range of examples is far-reaching, – following the parameters established in the thesis as the evidence for the argument. In paragraph 2, the response moves from an example of JFK challenging the American space program to explore the unknown “not because it is easy, but because it is hard” and then shifts to the example of Galileo and “his desire to enter into the unfamiliar that led to the scientific advances.” The commentary then solidifies the point of this example as it provides a list of scientists in the same vein as Galileo who “made their names by engaging with the unknown.” The value of “engaging with the unknown” being the advancement of humanity who “will forever be indebted to [those scientists] for their tenacity”. The response then moves to the cultural importance of music in paragraph 3, explicitly explaining how Bach, who “by exploring new territory in music, changed the face of string and orchestral music...” and Shostakovich “are known for being barrier-breakers.” Ultimately, the commentary explains that culture has benefitted from these composers who were not afraid of “breaking the constraints of cultural norms and exploring the unknown,” again connecting directly to, and furthering, the thesis. Finally, the literary example of Henry David Thoreau’s transcendental philosophy explains how he engaged the unknown as he “famously spent a period of his life living in seclusion.” The response then explains that the positive results of Thoreau’s experiences were the “new genre” of his writings and the way those writings speak to people’s personal development. While much of this example reads like a summary of Thoreau’s experience, there is enough commentary that connects those details to the thesis to make it an effective example.

About the Test The Advanced Placement Examination in English Language Composition is geared toward the student who has studied the mechanics of writing and rhetoric at an advanced level and wishes to pursue college credit Take care not to confuse the AP Examination in English Language Composition with the AP Examination in Literature Composition The Literature exam focuses on literature and literary criticism while the Language exam deals with writing as a craft This book is designed to help you prepare for the AP Examination in English Language Composition only The AP English Language Composition Exam is divided into two sections Section 1 Multiple Choice 60 minutes accounts for 45% of total score Five or six reading passages with an average of 10 questions each Section 2 Free Response up to 120 minutes accounts for 55% of total score Three essay questions The first section consists of five or six reading passages and sixty multiple choice questions which you will have one hour to complete Each passage will be followed by an average of ten questions and thereafter the passage will not be referred to again Do not feel pressured to remember each reading just digest them one at a time and move on After reading the passage you will have approximately one minute to answer each question The second section of the AP English Language Composition Exam consists of three essay questions and is divided such that you will have forty minutes to write each essay Do not expect to be able to go back to an essay after the allotted time has elapsed Note that each essay has very specific instructions and most have a passage which you will read critically to answer the essay question Your essays will be scored according to the essay structure the clarity of your writing and the extent to which you have answered the question

Scoring the Exam The multiple choice section of the exam is scored by crediting each correct answer with one point and deducting one fourth of a point for each incorrect answer Unanswered questions receive neither a credit nor a deduction The free response essays are graded by more than 5 000 instructors and professors who gather together each June for a week of non stop AP essay grading Each essay booklet is read and scored by four graders Each grader provides a score for the individual essays This score is a number on a scale from 0 to 9 0 being the lowest and 9 the highest The graders are not aware of each other s scores When the essays have been graded four times the scores are averaged one score for each of the three essays so that the free response section is composed of three scores The three essays are weighted equally and the total weight of the free response section is fifty five percent of the total score The multiple choice section accounts for forty five percent of the total score Each year the overall grades may fluctuate because the grading scale depends upon the performance of students in past AP administrations The following method of scoring along with the corresponding chart will give you an approximation of your score It will not indicate the exact score you would get on the actual AP English Language Composition Exam
