Emminghaus,1978 Despite what many people seem to think the reform of the Mass instituted by the Second Vatican Council did not bring a new Mass that has little or no connection with the traditional liturgy On the contrary the experts consulted the historical research done on the Mass in our century especially by Josef A Jungmann as a result ancient elements of the Mass that had been lost sight of in the course of time have been restored and the individual parts of the Mass have been understood in a new way and correspondingly revised For this reason it is important to follow the historical development of the Eucharistic celebration through the centuries if we are to understand the reform effected in our own day The Eucharist provides this provides this historical background It also shows clearly that the starting point for the renewal was not anything extrinsic to the liturgy a yen for modernization for example but rather the theological considerations that are set forth in the conciliar documents Especially valuable in this connection is the section on the essence of the Mass as seen in the Bible based on the most recent findings of exegesis and biblical theology Of great value is the detailed description of the new Missal of Pope Paul VI The author s explanations and practical suggestions can contribute to a meaningful and vital celebration Publisher      The order for Morning prayer or Mattins, the text with brief notes and comm. and copious Scripture references, by H.
