spacious so they just treat people like terrain and run across them Road Trains aren't long trucks but deadly avalanches unless one makes a step to the side And I explain the importance of carrying sufficient water because the Outback isn't just blue skies and wide open space but the largest sauna in the world In short Although Australia seems to be like home it is not This misapprehension can cost you your life Finally in order not completely deter the reader from traveling I'm recounting several good experiences For example about the drunken gargantuan Aborigines who found my tiny elderly mother who got lost at night when visiting and how they carefully guided her like a child And about three tourists standing alone at night in the middle of the desert with a fresh glass of champagne under the stars For readers impatient or just browsing I here summarize advice I deem most important Take preventive measures What is unsafe to do at home is unsafe away from home Let someone you trust know where you're going so they can alert someone should you not arrive as planned Tell them who to call and then contact them when you're back in safety Read warning signs and follow their advice Someone spent money and effort to put them there to save you Recognize places and situations where no warning sign has been put up but should have been Drink plenty of water and bring sufficient supplies Wear sunscreen Bring a jumper Australian National Bibliography, 1978 101 Tips to Survive Australia Sarah Gorst, 2013-06-01 This is the ultimate pocket book guide to surviving Australia with a range of interesting tips and tricks on what to do if troubles arise in the land down under A Picture of Australia's Children 2012 Australian Institute of Health and Welfare, 2012 This report provides updated data on how Australia's children are faring Statistics are presented against key national indicators of child health development and wellbeing including the Children's Headline Indicators Topics include mortality disability breastfeeding dental health physical activity nutrition early childhood education transition to school literacy and numeracy social and emotional development teenage births birth weight alcohol and tobacco use during pregnancy family functioning family economic situation parental health non-parental care neighbourhood safety social capital injuries bullying child abuse violence crime homelessness immunisation and screening child care and child protection Though Australian children are doing well in some areas there is still room for improvement especially for children from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander backgrounds or from socioeconomically disadvantaged areas Storying Plants in Australian Children's and Young Adult Literature Melanie Duckworth, Annika Herb, 2023-10-04 Storying Plants in Australian Children's and Young Adult Literature Roots and Winged Seeds explores cultural and historical aspects of the representation of plants in Australian children's and young adult literature encompassing colonial postcolonial and Indigenous perspectives While plants tend to be backgrounded as of less narrative interest than animals and humans this book in conversation with the field of critical plant studies approaches them as living beings worthy of attention Australia is home to over 20 000 species of native plants from pungent Eucalypts to twisting mangroves from tiny orchids to spiky silvery spinifex Indigenous Australians have lived with relied upon and cultivated these plants for many thousands of years When European explorers and colonists first invaded Australia unfamiliar
