Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century Fudge, Tamara Phillips, Ferebee, Susan Shepherd, 2021-06-25 The world of education has undergone major changes within the last year that have pushed online instruction to the forefront of learning Thanks to the COVID 19 pandemic online learning has become paramount to the continued and uninterrupted teaching of students and has forced students and teachers alike to adjust to an online learning environment Though some have already returned to the traditional classroom or plan to very soon others have begun to appreciate the value of online education initiatives that had previously been discussed but never acted upon as they have been in the past year With plenty of positive and negative aspects online learning is a complex issue with numerous factors to consider It is an issue that must be studied and examined in order to improve in the future Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century examines the issues and difficulties of online teaching and learning as well as potential solutions and best practices This book includes an examination on the value of teaching fully via the internet as well as the challenges inherent in the training of teachers to teach in online environments While addressing key elements of remote learning such as keeping student data safe as well as methods in which to engage students this book covers topics that include assessment tools teaching deaf students web technology and standardized curricula Ideal for K 12 teachers college faculty curriculum developers instructional designers educational software developers administrators academicians researchers and students this book provides a thorough overview of online education and the benefits and issues that accompany it

Transforming Higher Education Through Universal Design for Learning Seán Bracken, Katie Novak, 2019-02-21 Providing insight into the background theory and practical applications of Universal Design for Learning UDL Transforming Higher Education through Universal Design for Learning An International Perspective examines and shares best practice in UDL implementation worldwide to provide strategies for strengthening student accessibility engagement and learning outcomes through the development of flexible learning environments Drawing upon insightful research based contributions from educators and student service specialists in Australia Belgium Brazil Canada Ireland Israel Norway South Africa Spain the UK and all across the USA this book considers diversity in the form of disability minority ethnic groups gender identities first generation university students and varying socio economic backgrounds brings together key thinkers and actors in the field of UDL and expertly maps its practices to the higher educational domain explores the multiple means of representation expression and engagement that combine to create a successful UDL framework Each chapter not only provides a different perspective of how UDL has helped meet the needs of all students to ensure that education is accessible culturally responsive and socially just but also considers how this can then be implemented into higher education environments the world over This book is a crucial read for those who want to make a positive difference in higher education provision and outcomes Higher Education and Sustainability Ulisses Manuel de Miranda Azeiteiro,J. Paulo Davim,2019-08-30 The book provides descriptions of experiences from research and educational sustainability projects and the role HEIs can play together with contributions presenting a variety of initiatives showing how SDGs are being implemented The book promotes the theoretical and practical understanding on this thematic and disseminates knowledge and international research and cooperation Contributions cover the role of SDGs in advancing implementation of sustainable development sustainability in higher education the role of universities in sustainable development new paths towards sustainable development and e learning contributions Features Focuses on theoretical and practical understanding on Sustainability Higher Education and SDGs to disseminate knowledge and promote research and cooperation Includes lessons learned from sustainability research and educational challenges presenting case studies technological developments outputs of research and studies best practices and examples of successful projects Discusses relevant and international perspectives on sustainability higher education and SGD's Presents local and international contributions on a variety of initiatives showing how SDGs are being implemented Architecture, State Modernism and Cultural Nationalism in the Apartheid Capital Hilton Judin,2021-04-08 This book is the first comprehensive investigation of the architecture of the apartheid state in the period of rapid economic growth and political repression from 1957 to 1966 when buildings took on an ideological role that was never remote from the increasingly dominant administrative legislative and policing mechanisms of the regime It considers how this process reflected the usurpation of a regional modernism and looks to contribute to wider discourses on international postwar modernism in architecture Buildings in Pretoria that came to embody ambitions of the apartheid state for industrialisation and progress serve as case studies These were widely acclaimed projects that embodied for apartheid officials the pursuit of modernisation but carried latent apprehensions of Afrikaners about their growing economic prospects and cultural estrangement in Africa It is a less known and marginal story due to the dearth of material and documents buried in archives and untranslated documents Many of the documents drawings and photographs in the book are unpublished and include classified material and photographs from the National Nuclear Research Centre negatives of 1960s from Pretoria News and documents and pamphlets from Afrikaner Broederbond archives State architecture became the most iconic public manifestation of an evolving expression of white cultural identity as a new generation of architects in Pretoria took up the challenge of finding form to their prospects and beliefs It was an opportunistic faith in Afrikaners who urgently needed to entrench their vulnerable and contested position on the African continent The shift from provincial town to apartheid capital was swift and relentless Little was left to stand in the way of the ambitions and aim of the state as people were uprooted and forcibly relocated structures torn down and block upon block of administration towers and slabs erected across Pretoria This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of architectural history as well as those with an interest in postcolonial
