Military Review, 2017      The Goe Family, 1996 Melvin Boone Goe, 1996      Individual Creativity in the Workplace Roni Reiter-Palmon, Victoria L. Kennel, James C. Kaufman, 2018-08-07 Rapid technological change global competition and economic uncertainty have all contributed to organizations seeking to improve creativity and innovation Researchers and businesses want to know what factors facilitate or inhibit creativity in a variety of organizational settings Individual Creativity in the Workplace identifies those factors including what motivational and cognitive factors influence individual creativity as well as the contextual factors that impact creativity such as teams and leadership The book takes research findings out of the lab and provides examples of these findings put to use in real world organizations Identifies factors facilitating or inhibiting creativity in organizational settings Summarizes research on creativity cognition and motivation Provides real world examples of these factors operating in organizations today Highlights creative thought processes and how to encourage them Outlines management styles and leadership to encourage creativity Explores how to encourage individual creativity in team contexts      Resisting Europe Raffaella A. Del Sarto, Simone Tholens, 2020-10-13 Resisting Europe conceptualizes the foreign policies of Europe defined as the European Union and its member states toward the states in its immediate southern neighborhood as semi imperial attempts to turn these states into Europe's southern buffer zone or borderlands In these hybrid spaces different types of rules and practices coexist and overlap and negotiations over meaning and implementation take place This book examines the diverse modalities by which states in the Mediterranean Middle East and North Africa MENA reject resist challenge modify or entirely change European policies and preferences and provides rich empirical evidence of these contestation practices in the fields of migration and border control banking and finance democracy promotion and telecommunications It addresses the complex question of when and how MENA states capitalize on their leverage and interdependence in their relationships with Europe and contributes to a more comprehensive understanding of Europe Middle East relations while engaging with broader debates on power and interdependence order and contestation in international relations While a contribution on the practices of resistance and contestation of MENA states vis vis European policies and preferences in this geopolitically significant region was overdue this volume leads the way for subsequent studies that seek to overcome the constraints of exceptionalism so characteristic of research of the Middle East Europe the European Union and certainly of their relationship      Women and Gender Perspectives in the Military Robert Egnell, Mayesha Alam, 2019-02-01 Women and Gender Perspectives in the Military compares the integration of women gender perspectives and the women peace and security agenda into the armed forces of eight countries plus NATO and United Nations peacekeeping operations This book brings a much needed crossnational analysis of how militaries have or have not improved gender balance what has worked and what has not and who have been the agents for change The country cases examined are Sweden the Netherlands Canada the United States the United Kingdom Israel Australia and

South Africa Despite increased opportunities for women in the militaries of many countries and wider recognition of the value of including gender perspectives to enhance operational effectiveness progress has encountered roadblocks even nearly twenty years after United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 kicked off the women peace and security agenda Robert Egnell Mayesha Alam and the contributors to this volume conclude that there is no single model for change that can be applied to every country but the comparative findings reveal many policy relevant lessons while advancing scholarship about women and gendered perspectives in the military

Egypt and the rise of fluid authoritarianism Maria Gloria Polimeno, 2024-12-10 Egypt and the rise of fluid authoritarianism focuses on the sub upgrade of the regime in Egypt and the struggle of political authorities for internal political legitimacy after 2013 It is an interdisciplinary work that develops a complex theoretical framework for exploring the microstructural and macrosystemic dynamics of leadership power political ecology and the process of authority formation in illiberal systems that have undergone subsystemic transformations after shockwaves also beyond Egypt The book offers a complex groundbreaking socio political and economic analysis of how the forging of an internal claim to political legitimacy in Egypt eventually transformed the regime along the authoritarian spectrum morphing into a fluid autocracy that approximates what the book defines as a non exclusivist personalist regime thereby fragmenting elites In the second part the book offers an economic analysis in which legitimacy and political ecology are closely intertwined In this regard the Social Development Goals are employed as a prism

Moral Injury and Nonviolent Resistance Alice Lynd, Staughton Lynd, 2017-05-01 When ordinary people have done seen or failed to prevent something that betrays their deeply held sense of right and wrong it may shake their moral foundation They may feel that what they did was unforgivable In this thoughtful book culled from a wide range of experiences Alice and Staughton Lynd introduce readers to what modern clinicians philosophers and theologians have attempted to describe as moral injury Moral injury if not overcome can lead to an individual giving up turning to drugs alcohol or suicide But moral injury can also demand that one turn one s life around It offers hope because it indicates resistance to the use of violence that offends a sense of decency Within the military and in prisons institutions created to use force and violence against perceived enemies there have arisen new forms of saying No to violence From combat veterans of America s foreign wars to Israeli refuseniks and from hardened criminals in supermax confinement in Ohio to hunger strikers in California s Pelican Bay prison the Lynds give us the voices of those breaking the cycle of violence with courageous acts of nonviolent resistance As we become more awake to the horrors that we as a society have done or failed to prevent and when we become aware of what conscience demands of us in the face of recognizable violations of fundamental human rights we may take heart from the exemplary actions by individuals and groups of individuals described in this book
