English as a Medium of Instruction in South Asia Ram Ashish Giri, Amol Padwad, Mian Md. Naushaad Kabir, 2023-10-13

This book examines the English mania phenomenon and the complex circumstances of adopting English Medium Instruction (EMI) by South Asian education systems and the effect of an uneven distribution of resources on the already under-resourced countries in the region. Chapters explore linguistic, social and economic injustices by using an analytic critical approach to examinations of the place, role, provisions and practices of EMI in specific English language teaching (ELT) contexts. The book consequently advocates for the wholesale reform of a system which the authors argue is unjust. Ultimately, the book explores socio-cultural, poststructuralist and English linguistic imperialism theories to contribute a South Asian perspective on the controversy surrounding EMI and examine its role within a wider global discourse on equity and social justice. Critically examining the spread of English in South Asia, this book will be of relevance to researchers, scholars and postgraduate students in applied linguistics, language education, TESOL and sociolinguistics.

Education and Migration

Prue Holmes, Richard Fay, Jane Andrews, 2020-06-04 From an international research-led perspective, this book explores how languages are foregrounded in education in different countries and educational sectors and among different groups of people in contexts of migration. It is concerned with the movement of people and their languages as they migrate across borders and as languages and their speakers are under threat, pressure and pain even to the point of being silenced. The contributors explore the multilingual possibilities and opportunities that these situations present. For example, where children's education is neglected because of displacement or exclusion or in classrooms where teachers and educational leaders seek to meet the needs of all learners, including those who are new citizens, refugees or asylum seekers. Together, the findings and conclusions emerging from these studies open up a timely space for interdisciplinary inter-practitioner and comparative research dialogue concerning languages and intercultural education in times of migration. Originating from an Arts and Humanities Research Council funded project 'Researching multilingually at the borders of language, the body, law and the state', this book provides readers with a natural impetus for exploring how languages and their speakers create new imaginaries and new possibilities in educational contexts and communities as people engage with one another in and through these languages. This book was originally published as a special issue of Language and Intercultural Communication.

Ten Lessons for a Post-Pandemic World Fareed Zakaria, 2020-10-06 From the international bestselling author of The Post American World, an intelligent, learned and judicious guide for a world already in the making. The New York Times: Since the end of the Cold War, the world has been shaken to its core three times: 11 September 2001, the financial collapse of 2008 and most of all, Covid-19. Each was an asymmetric threat set in motion by something seemingly small and different from anything the world had experienced before. Lenin is supposed to have said: 'There are decades when nothing happens and weeks when decades happen.' This is one of those times when history has sped up. In this urgent and timely book, Fareed Zakaria, one of the top ten
