Evangelization as Interreligious Dialogue John C. Cavadini, Donald Wallenfang, 2019-08-21 What does Jesus have to do with Buddha What does Muhammad have to do with Krishna One of the most important tasks for theology in the twenty first century is interreligious dialogue Given the rapid process of globalization and the surge of information via the Internet travel and library networking today interreligious dialogue has become a necessary element within Christian theology that no longer can be avoided Evangelization as Interreligious Dialogue features eleven essays plus an extensive introduction that exercise a live conversation between religious others Divided into four thematic sections 1 Catholic approaches to interreligious dialogue 2 dialogues between Judaism and Christianity 3 dialogues between Islam and Christianity and 4 dialogues between Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity this volume conducts a sustained theological reflection on the current state of interreligious dialogue by signaling its hopeful promises and unrelenting challenges The reader will be invited to encounter the religious other firsthand and put his or her most cherished theological assumptions to the test This book aims to provoke an expansion of horizons for theological imagination as it exposes the basic dialectic of identity and difference as played out in the interaction between diverse religious beliefs practices and experiences

More than a Monologue: Sexual Diversity and the Catholic Church J. Patrick Hornbeck II, Michael A. Norko, 2014-03-03 This volume like its companion Voices of Our Times collects essays drawn from a series of public conferences held in autumn 2011 entitled More than a Monologue The series was the fruit of collaboration among four institutions of higher learning two Catholic universities and two nondenominational divinity schools The conferences aimed to raise awareness of and advance informed compassionate and dialogical conversation about issues of sexual diversity within the Catholic community as well as in the broader civic worlds that the Catholic Church and Catholic people inhabit They generated fresh rich sets of scholarly and reflective contributions that promise to take forward the delicate work of theological ethical and ecclesial development Along with Voices of Our Times this volume captures insights from the conferences and aims to foster what the Jesuit Superior General Fr Adolfo Nicolas has called the depth of thought and imagination needed to engage effectively with complex realities especially in areas marked by brokenness pain and the need for healing The volumes will serve as vital resources for understanding and addressing better the too often fraught relations between LGBTQ lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer persons their loved ones and allies and the Catholic community Inquiry Thought and Expression explores dimensions of ministry ethics theology and law related to a range of LGBTQ concerns including Catholic teaching its reception among the faithful and the Roman Catholic Church's significant role in world societies Within the volume a series of essays on ministry explores various perspectives not frequently heard within the church Marriage equality and the treatment of LGBTQ individuals by and within the Roman Catholic Church are considered from the vantage points of law ethics and theology Themes of language and discourse are explored in analyses of the place of sexual diversity in church history thought and authority The two volumes of More than a Monologue like the conferences from which they developed actively move beyond the monologic voice of the institutional church on the subject of LGBTQ issues inviting and promoting open conversations about sexual diversity and the church Those who read Inquiry Thought and Expression will encounter not just an excellent resource for research and teaching in the area of moral theology but also an opportunity to actively listen to and engage in groundbreaking discussions about faith and sexuality within and outside the Catholic Church

Thomas Merton's Encounter with Buddhism and Beyond Jaechan Anselmo Park, 2019-03-07 Thomas Merton recognized the value and possibility of contemplative dialogue between monastics and contemplatives of other religious traditions and hoped that through such dialogue monastics would strive for inter monastic communion and a bonding of the broader spiritual family He held out hope that this bond would demonstrate the fundamental unity of humanity to a world that was becoming ever more materialistic and divided Among other themes and topics this book explores Thomas Merton's role as a pioneer of Buddhist Christian dialogue and monastic interreligious dialogue It delves into the process of Merton's self transformation through contemplative experiences explores his encounter with Zen and Tibetan Buddhists and his pioneering engagements in Buddhist Christian dialogue and presents and responds to the criticisms of those who raise questions about Merton's understanding of Buddhism Fr Jaechan Anselmo Park OSB articulates and analyzes the influences of Buddhist theory and practice on Thomas Merton's contemplative spirituality and shows how Merton's legacy has influenced and continues to inspire interreligious and inter monastic dialogue particularly in an Asian monastic context
