

Sample After Action Report Format

Event Overview

This section provides background information on the event and participating agencies and jurisdictions, such as the dates and location of the event, the type of event/disaster, the lead agencies, the participating agencies, and an overview of the event.

Event Goals and Objectives

The goals and objectives for the exercise or actual event. (Tabletops usually have no more than 3-6 objectives.)

Events Synopsis

This section provides a synopsis of the scenario and the major actions that were taken by the players. This information is useful in understanding what happened, when and where it happened, and how the events affected performance of critical tasks and achievement of mission outcomes.

Analysis of Issues

This section analyzes the issues raised during the exercise. The issues evaluated should be based on the (incident/exercise) objectives. It should be organized by objective and should address each objective, including those that were performed as expected. Each issue write-up should be organized as described below.

Issue #1: (name it)

- Activity: A short description of the activity (e.g., "Gather and Provide Information: Upon establishing EOC/MACC/IOF operations, gather, organize, and document incident situation and resource information from all sources...").
- Observation: A short, complete sentence that describes the general observation (e.g., "Area for Improvement: Agencies lacked regular, consistent updates from the field.").
- Reference(s): Specific plans, policies, procedures, laws, or regulations that apply to the observation may also be referenced as well as relevant task(s) from the EEG related to the observation. Also, if no references relate to the observation, it is acceptable to record "not applicable" for this section (e.g., "National Response Plan, Emergency Support Function #5 – Emergency Management").
- Analysis: A description of the behavior or actions at the core of the observation, including a brief description of what happened; the consequence(s) of the action or behavior (positive or negative); and a root-cause analysis of the contributing factors (e.g., "Reports arrived at the operations center at erratic intervals, and often contained contradictory or inconsistent information.
