The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages Lutz Marten, Ellen Hurst-Harosh, Nancy C. Kula, Jochen Zeller, 2025-08-19

This volume brings together leading scholars from Africa Europe the Americas and beyond to provide a detailed account of the languages of the Bantu family which cover an area from Cameroon and Kenya in the north to South Africa in the south. The Bantu family is part of the Niger Congo phylum and one of the world's biggest language groups comprising around 500 languages. The family includes major languages with large numbers of speakers such as Zulu, Kinyarwanda and Swahili, the most widely spoken and taught African language as well as many community languages and several endangered languages. Bantu languages feature prominently in the complex and multilingual language ecologies that are characteristic of the linguistic situation in much of Africa and they provide rich evidence for the study of theoretical and comparative linguistics, language contact and language change. They play an important role in education, commerce, culture and artistic expression in the media and public discourse in governance and social justice and are central to the future of the continent and the well-being of its communities. The first part of The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages provides background and context with chapters exploring the history of research in the field, language and prehistory in Bantu speaking Africa and typology and variation. Chapters in the second part offer broad comparative overviews of Bantu phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics and pragmatics, socio and applied linguistics before Parts III–VII cover more specific topics in Bantu linguistics across a variety of subfields ranging from structural issues such as the augment and melodic tone to historical and sociolinguistic topics such as Bantu languages in the diaspora and language policy and standardization. The chapters in the final part offer individual structural overviews of a range of languages from across the Bantu speaking area. The book will be an essential resource for students and researchers specializing in the Bantu languages and for typologists and comparative linguists more broadly.

Ikpana Interrogatives Jason Kandybowicz, Bertille Baron, Philip T. Duncan, Hironori Katsuda, 2023-03-01

This book documents the interrogative system of Ikpana, an endangered indigenous Ghana Togo Mountain language of eastern Ghana, also known as Logba. The system is notable in several respects. It exhibits features that buck certain typological trends, act as counterexamples to some claims about language universals and exemplify fascinating patterns that are either rare or unfamiliar in interrogative systems cross-linguistically. Drawing on original fieldwork and a combination of formal, theoretical, experimental and comparative methodologies, the book provides a theoretically informed description and analysis of Ikpana interrogative grammar, encompassing both syntactic and phonological aspects of question formation in the language. The chapters explore a range of phenomena including polar question formation, wh-movement, wh-in-situ interrogative intonation and prosody, among others. The authors demonstrate that theoretically guided language documentation does not only contribute to language description but can also increase understanding of the human Language Faculty and expand the empirical base of language typologies, bringing formal and theoretical concerns to the fore, facilitates richer descriptions of the grammar than purely descriptive approaches allow Ubuntu Marietjie Oelofsen, Upenyu Majee, Bongani Mgijima, Jamie Monson, 2024-08-20 Ubuntu Interdisciplinary Conversations Across Continents is a collection of work by 17 scholars emerging from the Ubuntu Dialogues Seminar Exchange Fellowship hosted by Stellenbosch University in South Africa and Michigan State University in the US between 2019 and 2022. This collaborative work brings new voices and new ways of interrogating a concept that holds possibilities for living together differently. The contributions problematise the concept in provocative and surprising ways and disrupt narrow and superficial interpretations of Ubuntu. The contributors to this book foreground critical issues which are fundamental towards a deeper understanding of the notion of ubuntu. Dr Sithembele Marawu, University of Fort Hare. This book features next generation rising stars from places such as South Africa, Zimbabwe, Malawi, Burundi and the US writing about ubuntu, the indigenous southern African term often used to capture African philosophy especially its moral dimensions. A fresh kaleidoscopic engagement with ubuntu. Professor Thaddeus Metz, University of Pretoria.
