Strategies

- Since you have only the answer choices to listen to, not the questions, always read over the options before you listen to know what information you will need.

- Do your best to follow along, do not fall behind when answering the questions after the dialogue.
- Don't worry about taking notes just then and try to remember the content of the dialogue.
- Use process of elimination to rule out wrong answers.

Long dialogues and narratives are spoken on a recording. The questions and answers are both printed in the booklet, the questions are not spoken.

Strategies

- These dialogues are longer, try not to lose focus.
- You will have two minutes to read the questions and answer choices prior to hearing the recording; use the full two minutes to read the questions and note down any key words and other general information.
- Take notes while listening to the dialogues/narratives.
- You may recognize the multiple-choice questions as you go on later notes and answer later, as you practice for the exam, figure out which method works best for you.
- Do not focus on previous phrases or words you heard and did not understand; focus on the words alone.
