Amazing Arts 23:

The Global Contemporary Art World Jonathan Harris, 2017-10-02 The final installment in the critically acclaimed trilogy on globalization and art explores the growing dominance of Asian centers of art. This book takes readers on a fascinating journey around five Asian centers of contemporary art and its myriad institutions, agents, forms, materials, and languages while posing vital questions about the political economy of culture and the power of visual art in a multi-polar world. He analyzes the financial powerhouse of Art Basel, Hong Kong, new media art in South Korea, the place of the Kochi Biennale within contemporary art in India, transnational art and art education in China, and the geo-politics of art patronage in Palestine. And he develops a highly original synthesis of theoretical perspectives and empirical research. Drawing on detailed case studies and personal insights gained from his extensive experience of the contemporary art scene in Asia, Professor Harris examines the evolving relationship between the western centers of art practice, collection, and validation and the emerging peripheries of Asian Tiger societies with burgeoning art centers. And he arrives at the somewhat controversial conclusion that dominance of the art world is rapidly slipping away from Europe and North America. The Global Contemporary Art World is essential reading for undergraduates and postgraduate students in modern and contemporary art, art history, art theory, and criticism, cultural studies, the sociology of culture, and globalization studies. It is also a vital resource for research students, academics, and professionals in the art world.

Milton and the Reformation Aesthetics of the Passion Erin Henriksen, 2009-11-23 Scholarship on Milton's view of God the Father and the Son has focused on the author's theological beliefs. For Milton these are equally artistic questions and to address them this study considers the precedents in Christian art that provide models for portraying the divine within a reformed context. Milton's revision of the passion tradition in his short poems of 1645 and his later epic poems substitutes a living, obedient, and subservient Son in place of late medieval representations of the crucifixion. His alternative passion unfolds through a poetic vocabulary of fragmentation, omission, and restoration, drawing on iconoclasm as an artistic strategy. This study addresses the long-standing question about Milton's avoidance of the crucifixion and contributes to the broader study of his reformed poetics.

Cinematic Style Jess Berry, 2022-01-27 From cinema's silent beginnings fashion and interior design have been vital to character development and narrative structure. Despite spectacular technological advancements on screen, stunning silhouettes and striking spaces still have the ability to dazzle to dramatic effect. This book is the first to consider the significant interplay between fashion and interiors and their combined contribution to cinematic style from early film to the digital age. With examples from Frank Lloyd Wright inspired architecture in Hitchcock's North by Northwest to Coco Chanel's costumes for Gloria Swanson and a Great Gatsby film set turned Ralph Lauren flagship Cinematic Style describes the reciprocal relationship between these cultural forms Exposing the bleeding lines between fashion and interiors in cinematic and real life contexts Berry presents case studies of cinematic styles adopted as brand identities and design movements promoted through filmic fantasy Shedding light on consumer culture social history and gender politics as well as on fashion film and interior design theory Cinematic Style considers the leading roles domestic spaces quaint cafes little black dresses and sharp suits have played in 20th and 21st century film Mess and Contemporary Performance Harriet Curtis, 2024-11-19 This book identifies and theorises mess in contemporary performance and argues that mess offers a site from which subjects might mobilise and find agency even as the complexity and indeed messiness of everyday life conditions and contains Using a queer feminist and intersectional critical framework this book analyses how established and emerging artists mess with and mess up capitalist tendencies towards productivity usefulness and efficiency Whilst the materiality of mess provides a starting point and emerges in many of the works analysed the implications of mess as related to vulnerability shame and resistance occupy a larger space in the book's chapters These performances are messy not only in content or style they reveal critical readings of how perceived as messy subjects and practices are shaped and regulated In attending to the public personal and structural uses of mess and emphasising the critical possibilities of what might otherwise be skipped over or cleared away this book develops and opens out shared understandings of mess as creative chaos and as a practice of political action or change This book will be of particular interest to students and scholars in contemporary theatre art and performance
