

Unit 1 Review

1. What is the difference between the three types of representative democracies: participatory democracy, pluralist democracy, and elite democracy?
  - Participatory -- the people directly have the power to make policy
  - Pluralist -- different groups compete/have power to make policy
  - Elite -- a small group of people who have more power, make policy
2. Give examples of how participatory democracy is presented in American government.
Stato-focal levels of government -- initiative, referendum, & recall

  - Referendum -- the people vote directly on a law
  - Recall -- the people can vote an elected official out of office before their term ends

  - Separation of powers, checks and balances, federalism, Bill of Rights
7. Define social contract. How is this reflected in American government?
  - Agreements between the people and government (people will agree to give up some freedoms/rights in order to be protected by the government)
