

Spanish-American War DBQ

Resource overview

This DBQ examines the causes, immediate catalysts, and early consequences of the Spanish-American War (1898). Students will:

- Read short, authentic primary-source excerpts from U.S. and Spanish/Filipino actors.
- Practice sourcing, contextualization, close reading, and corroboration skills.
- Use scaffolding questions to build background knowledge.
- Analyze five documents (each with five guiding questions).
- Write a constructed-response essay (short DBQ) answering a central Task question that asks them to weigh causes and motives for U.S. action in 1898.

Learning goals (aligned to middle-school literacy & social studies standards):

- Identify and explain primary causes and catalysts of the Spanish-American War.
- Use evidence from documents to support historical claims.
- Distinguish between long-term causes (e.g., U.S. economic & humanitarian concerns), proximate causes (USS Maine explosion; De Lôme letter), and stated governmental intent (Teller Amendment, McKinley's message).
- Practice historical thinking skills: sourcing, contextualization, corroboration, and argumentation.

Time & class configuration:

- Designed for three 45-60 minute class periods (detailed schedule below).
- Works with whole-class, small groups, or remote learning (editable).

Materials to prepare (teacher):

- Printed or digital copies of the five document excerpts (provided below).
- Student DBQ packet (context, scaffolding Qs, guiding Qs, prompt).
- Rubric and sample thesis/paragraph scaffolds (included).
