preservation in the twentieth century destruction and postwar reconstruction in Belgium France Germany Great Britain and

The Netherlands This book establishes a status quaestionis for the historiography of wartime and postwar preservation and sets these particular developments in preservation history in the context of the general evolution of architecture and urbanism The authors investigate the specific role of conservationists and heritage institutions and administrations in the overall reconstruction and examine the part played by architects and planners in heritage preservation

The work of Dutch architect Charles Vandenhove has always evinced a tension between his Modernist training and a desire to revise or even reject that heritage but the past five years have seen him returning to his Modernist education evolving towards a more austere formal vocabulary Charles Vandenhove Recent Work 1995 2000 clearly charts this development in such striking examples as the Staar complex in Maastricht the renovation of the Koninklijke Schouwburg and the Huygensgracht housing development in The Hague This monograph also addresses Vandenhove's standing as an insider outsider who is both highly esteemed internationally and regarded as something of a maverick
