Stand Up Sitting Down:

Mask Improvisation for Actor Training & Performance Sears A. Eldredge, 1996 Because mask improvisation work is relatively new in American theater training this book is designed not only to acquaint readers with the theory of mask improvisation but to instruct them in the techniques of method as well. Featuring dozens of improvisational exercises in the innovative spirit of Viola Spolin and supplemented with practical appendices on mask design and construction forms and checklists and other classroom materials this book is an invaluable tool for teacher and student alike as well as compelling reading for anyone interested in acquiring a deeper understanding of masks as agents of transformation creativity and performance Functional Electrical Stimulation Alojz R. Kralj, Tadej Bajd, 1989-01-31 This reference text covers the fundamental knowledge and principles of functional electrical stimulation FES as applied to the spinal cord injured SCI patient. The principles of FES application and basic biomechanical issues related to FES in SCI are stressed. The fundamentals regarding patient selection criteria indication contraindications and descriptions of procedures are clearly presented. Also included are the fundamentals and rationale of gait restoration with patient selection control strategies and the synthesis of gait sequences with trends in the field. Each chapter contains numerous references to the FES literature for the reader to easily evaluate and extend his knowledge in the area of interest. Biomedical and rehabilitation engineering professionals and researchers for medical doctors physical therapists and orthotists will find this publication invaluable.
