World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis,Anthony Esler,2014     A Student Athlete's Guide to College Success Trent Petrie,Eric Denson,1999 This text features coverage of mainstream college success topics with a special focus on student athletes Included are chapters on motivation and procrastination health and performance and communication and assertiveness as well as special boxes on media relations and the transferability of skills from athletics to academic courses

Skills for School Success Anita L. Archer,Mary Gleason-Ricker,Linda Lungren,Curriculum Associates Staff,1999 Grade level 6 e i t     Teaching Writing in the Content Areas Vicki Urquhart,Monette McIver,2005-05-15 Most educators intuitively understand the critical relationship between thinking and writing writing allows us to express what we think but the very act of writing spurs a process of exploration that changes our thinking and helps us learn Teaching Writing in the Content Areas examines nearly 30 years of research to identify how teachers can incorporate writing instruction that helps students master the course content and improve their overall achievement Building on the recommendations of the National Commission on Writing authors Vicki Urquhart and Monette McIver introduce four critical issues teachers should address when they include writing in their content courses Creating a positive environment for the feedback and guidance students need at various stages including prewriting drafting revising and editing Monitoring and assessing how much students are learning through their writing Choosing computer programs that best enhance the writing process Strengthening their knowledge of course content and their own writing skills. The authors also provide 35 classroom strategies, practices and handouts that teachers can easily implement in most subject areas or grade levels. From prewriting guides and work sheets to instructional guidance and analysis, the strategies offer realistic options to help teachers tailor writing assignments and instruction to the needs of each class. Teaching Writing in the Content Areas is more than a primer for teaching the mechanics of writing; it is a research based guide to regularly engaging students in writing that pushes them to express themselves clearly to explore new ideas and to become critical thinkers. A Brief Guide to Writing from Readings Stephen Wilhoit, 2006-07. This brief guide teaches students how to write the most common papers assigned in college courses: source based essays that summarize, analyze, critique and synthesize. Comprehensive enough to serve as a primary text yet compact enough to serve as a supplement, this clear and concise writing guide teaches students how to critically read, clearly summarize, carefully respond to, precisely critique, creatively synthesize and accurately quote or paraphrase texts. A Brief Guide is a valuable teaching and reference tool that students of many disciplines find useful for class work and for independent study. A Teacher's Guide to Standardized Reading Tests Lucy Calkins, Kate Montgomery, Donna Santman, Beverly Falk, 1998. This book reflects the authors' belief that in order to be less victimized by tests we need to be more knowledgeable about them. Mosby's Tour Guide to Nursing School Melodie Chenevert, 2011. Encouraging, user friendly and altogether unique, Mosby's Tour Guide to Nursing School encourages you to not only survive nursing school but excel in whichever program you select. Throughout the book, Dr. Chenevert compares your journey through nursing school to a road trip and she offers advice to increase your understanding, help you successfully navigate obstacles and make your journey more enjoyable. You'll learn how to prepare for the NCLEX® R and your nursing career, how to get good grades, how to deal with failure, how to improve oral and written reports and much more. A must have for every nursing student. Endorsed by the National Student Nurses Association (NSNA), Written by a nationally known motivational speaker and nurse, the book's down to earth approach uses humor and clever analogies to clearly teach the information you need to know. Uses the analogy of a cross country road trip to help you see the relationships between different aspects of nursing school as well as give you a finite view of its duration and end result. Inspirational quotes throughout offer wisdom and encouragement from fellow nursing students and graduates. The appendix lists numerous diverse resources you'll find useful before, during and after nursing school. Electronic Age Information covers distance learning, online courses and podcasts facilitating your success both in today's electronic classroom and with the advancing technology in nursing. A special NCLEX® R chapter, Chapter 29, Are We There Yet Almost provides you with the tools you need to prepare for and pass the NCLEX® R. Updated statistics and information on the emerging trends of the workforce keep you current with what's happening in the world outside nursing and help you make educated choices during nursing school. Three chapters are devoted to diversity in today's workforce and the non traditional student. Thorough coverage of ADN, BSN and RN, BSN programs, program prerequisites, differences and more helps you make informed decisions about your choice of nursing programs An appendix of Online Resources provides quick and easy access to web sites that will assist both students and graduates with continued study and real world advice
