

Colonial America

In England during the 1500s, many people lost their jobs. There was not enough food to eat. These hard times made people want to move. North America seemed like a land of opportunity. Many people from England dreamed of moving to America.

At that time there were no states in North America. There were thirteen colonies. They had been settled by Europeans and separated into three regions. These regions were the New England Colonies, the Middle Colonies, and the Southern Colonies.

New England Colonies

The New England Colonies included Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island.

Over one hundred Pilgrims sailed on the Mayflower to America. Among these Pilgrims were forty Separatists who hoped to establish a new church in the so-called New World. Upon landing in America, the Pilgrims settled in Plymouth, Massachusetts.

The weather in New England was freezing in the winter and mild in the summer. This weather did not make the New England Colonies a good place to farm. Instead of farming, colonists earned money by fishing, whaling, and shipbuilding.

Middle Colonies

The Middle Colonies included Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, and Delaware.

Unlike the New England Colonies, the Middle Colonies had excellent soil. The soil was perfect for growing wheat and other grains. The Middle Colonies became known as the "Bread Basket Colonies" because of the successful farming conditions.
