A Murder In The Hills Ankit Sharma,2021-11-02 Four orphans four different personalities but their destinies intertwined Things are not always what they seem like life can be painful life can be cruel Raghav Kabir Suhani and Ragini become friends in the orphanage and move out only to experience something that would change their lives forever Detective Abhijit an alcoholic struggling with his past gets involved in a murder completely unaware of a bigger threat to his city Shimla Will he be able to find the killer

Handbook on the Geographies of Power Mat Coleman,John Agnew,2018-07-27 The so called spatial turn in the social sciences means that many researchers have become much more interested in what can be called the spatialities of power or the ways in which power as a medium for achieving goals is related to where it takes place Most famous authors on the subject such as Machiavelli and Hobbes saw power as entirely equivalent to domination exercised by some over others Though this meaning is hardly redundant understandings of power have become more multidimensional and nuanced as a result of the spatial turn Much recent writing in human geography for example has rigorously extended use of the term power beyond its typical understanding as a resource that pools up in some hands and some places to a medium of agency that has different effects depending on how it is deployed across space and how actors cooperate or not to give it effect To address this objective the book is organized thematically into four sections that cover the main areas in which much of the contemporary work on geographies of power is concentrated bodies economy environment and energy and war

Rethinking Incarceration Dominique DuBois Gilliard,2018-03-02 The United States has more people locked up in jails prisons and detention centers than any other country in the history of the world Exploring the history and foundations of mass incarceration Dominique Gilliard examines Christianity s role in its evolution and expansion assessing justice in light of Scripture and showing how Christians can pursue justice that restores and reconciles

Mark Levin A must read book that shows how the Green New Deal is dangerous impractical misguided and guaranteed to fail with disastrous results for the American people Sean Hannity A New Lockdown to Save the Climate That's what's in store for us if Alexandria Ocasio Cortez and the Democrats pass their radical climate plan the Green New Deal It is packed with guarantees so completely irrelevant to the problem it purports to solve like free college and incomes for everyone unable or unwilling to work that even its boosters have admitted it's not really about the climate The intrepid Marc Morano author of the bestselling Politically Incorrect Guide to Climate Change breaks down the science and the politics to expose the truth about the Green New Deal The science is settled copious evidence and prominent defections from the climate consensus make clear we are not facing a man made climate disaster Climate change is the perfect Trojan horse for the socialist agenda of the Left Fossil fuels lifted the West out of poverty but our elites now want to deny them to the world's poor The Green New Deal is on a collision course with self government and our fundamental rights Climate change has already been solved multiple times over the past two decades with highly touted international agreements and yet it never goes away as an excuse for leftist policies that will cripple our economy impoverish the world and take away our freedoms Packed with telling statistics damning quotations and real science Green Fraud is your source for all the facts you need to understand and resist

BOOK CLUB PICK Named a Kirkus Reviews Best Book of 2021 Becoming Abolitionists is ultimately about the importance of asking questions and our ability to create answers And in the end Purnell makes it clear that abolition is a labor of love one that we can accomplish together if only we decide to Nia Evans Boston Review For more than a century activists in the United States have tried to reform the police From community policing initiatives to increasing diversity none of it has stopped the police from killing about three people a day Millions of people continue to protest police violence because these solutions do not match the problem the police cannot be reformed In Becoming Abolitionists Purnell draws from her experiences as a lawyer writer and organizer initially skeptical about police abolition She saw too much sexual violence and buried too many friends to consider getting rid of police in her hometown of St Louis let alone the nation But the police were a placebo Calling them felt like something and something feels like everything when the other option seems like nothing Purnell details how multi racial social movements rooted in rebellion risk taking and revolutionary love pushed her and a generation of activists toward abolition The book travels across geography and time and offers lessons that activists have learned from Ferguson to South Africa from Reconstruction to contemporary protests against police shootings Here Purnell argues that police can not be reformed and invites readers to envision new systems that work to address the root causes of violence Becoming Abolitionists shows that abolition is not solely about getting rid of police but a commitment to create and support different answers to the problem of harm in society and most excitingly an opportunity to reduce and eliminate harm in the first place

Beyond These Walls Tony Platt,2019-01-08 You should definitely read this book What really struck me in reading Beyond These Walls was that Tony Platt had very seriously and carefully considered the contributions of social movements feminist queer disability and labor Angela Davis Beyond These Walls is an ambitious and far ranging exploration that tracks the legacy of crime and imprisonment in the United States from the historical roots of the American criminal justice system to our modern state of over incarceration and offers a bold vision for a new future Author Tony Platt a recognized authority in the field of criminal justice challenges the way we think about how and why millions of people are tracked arrested incarcerated catalogued and regulated in the United States Beyond These Walls traces the disturbing history of punishment and social control revealing how the criminal justice system attempts to enforce and justify inequalities associated with class race gender and sexuality Prisons and police departments are central to this process but other institutions from immigration and welfare to educational and public health agencies are equally complicit Platt argues that international and national politics shape perceptions of danger and determine the policies of local criminal justice agencies while private policing and global corporations are deeply and undemocratically involved in the business of homeland security Finally Beyond These Walls demonstrates why efforts to reform criminal justice agencies have often expanded rather than contracted the net of social control Drawing upon a long tradition of popular resistance Platt concludes with a strategic vision of what it will take to achieve justice for all in this era of authoritarian disorder

Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Akwasi Owusu-Bempah,Shaun Gabbidon,2020-09-24 Race Ethnicity Crime and Justice An International Dilemma Second Edition takes a unique comparative approach to the exploration of race and ethnicity related justice issues in five countries around the world Using the colonial model as a theoretical lens Owusu Bempah and Gabbidon analyse data from Great Britain the United States Canada Australia and South Africa These international case studies help students contextualize race and justice issues within and across nations Concise historical framing illuminates today s racial dynamics in these diverse justice systems and accessible theory grounds the comparison of crime and justice data from the early 21st century with current statistics A new concluding chapter revisits the question of where these nations fit in the global context of state and non state actors and of ethnic and racial justice issues This new edition is suitable for use as a core or supplemental text for advanced undergraduates and early graduate courses on race and crime minorities and criminal justice diversity in criminal justice and comparative justice systems It is also appropriate for use in sociology and ethnic studies
