

Text Structure

Authors of non-fiction text organize their writing in a way that is helpful to their readers. The way they choose to organize their text is called text structure.

There are five main non-fiction text structures.

| Type                                                                                                      | Explanation                                                                                            | Key Words                                                      |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| Cause & Effect       | The text shares information about an event and what caused it to occur.                                | cause, effect, since, then, because, if, when, so              |
| Compare & Contrast   | The text has two or more ideas or topics and the author writes about the similarities and differences. | like, unlike, but both, also, most, similar to, different from |
| Description          | The text provides a detailed description of the topic of the text.                                     | to begin with, for instance, examples of, features include     |
| Sequence           | The text is written in order of events or chronological order.                                         | first, next, then, finally, before, after, during meanwhile    |
| Problem & Solution | The text includes information about a problem and possible or attempted solutions.                     | problem, solution, because, since, the issue is, resolved by   |
