NOVEL STUDY

A cartoon illustration of a young boy with brown hair and glasses, wearing a green shirt with a bow tie. He is looking down at a worksheet with a large smile. The worksheet contains several sections with lines for writing, including 'Identify the characters in the story', 'Identify the setting in the story', 'Identify the problem in the story', and 'Identify the solution in the story'. There are also sections for 'Predict the problem' and 'Predict the solution'. The background is white with some blue and yellow elements.

1. What are the characters like? How are they different from each other?
2. What does the story tell us about the setting?
3. Compare the setting with one you have experienced. How are the settings similar? How are they different?

A Practical Guide to Teaching Research Methods in Education Aimee LaPointe Terosky, Vicki L. Baker, Jeffrey C. Sun, 2023-03-23 A Practical Guide to Teaching Research Methods in Education brings together more than 60 faculty experts. The contributors share detailed lesson plans about selected research concepts or skills in education and related disciplines as well as discussions of the intellectual preparation needed to effectively teach the lesson. Grounded in the wisdom of practice from exemplary and award winning faculty from diverse institution types career stages and demographic backgrounds this book draws on both the practical and cognitive elements of teaching educational and related research to students in higher education today. The book is divided into eight sections covering the following key elements within education and related research problems and research questions literature reviews and theoretical frameworks research design quantitative methods qualitative methods mixed methods findings and discussions and special topics such as student identity development community and policy engaged research and research dissemination. Within each section individual chapters specifically focus on skills and perspectives needed to navigate the complexities of educational research. The concluding chapter reflects on how teachers of research also need to be learners of research as faculty continuously strive for mastery identity and creativity in how they guide our next generation of knowledge producers through the research process. Undergraduate and graduate professors of education and related research courses dissertation chairs committee members faculty development staff members and graduate students would all benefit from the lessons and expert commentary contained in this book.
