PROLOGUE

Through I often looked the way, I doubtly had no notion that there would be no more the Paris that of it was the way. The world had ended more already and would again at any moment. The war had come and changed us by happening, affairs changed and it couldn't be the same. There were many had died, but when you heard the numbers—some millions or fourteen millions—your thought, impossible. Paris was full of ghosts and the walking wounded. Many came back to America or New York, Illinois, after through and carrying little pieces of what they'd seen behind their
