7th Class English Punjab Board:

Teaching English in Multilingual Contexts Graeme Cane, 2011-01-18 This collection of innovative thought provoking papers discusses contemporary issues practices and research related to the role and teaching of English in multilingual countries The papers written by experienced practitioners in the field from a number of different countries examine how the English language can be more effectively taught to students in Asia who speak English as their second third or fourth language The book will be of interest not only to linguists language teachers and educators but also to social science researchers involved in exploring the effects language policy can have on education and society at large The eleven chapters in this book are divided into three sections multilingual aspects in the teaching and learning of English code switching and code mixing and assessment Their authors came to Karachi from different academic cultural and geographic backgrounds and with diverse experiences of the world of English Language Teaching in order to participate in the Fifth International Seminar hosted by the Aga Khan University Centre of English Language The contributors are all multi linguals for whom the question of how best to teach languages is a challenge they face on a daily basis This small collection of papers is likely to become a powerful resource for English teachers scholars and researchers interested in the problems facing language educators in today s multilingual multi cultural world

CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen, 2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system The book examines the questions Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan And how has their rule worsened the country s problems The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis interviews and textbook analysis This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky high inflation The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam Why don t they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan Instead many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools More importantly why do the ulama which literally means those who possess knowledge ilm particularly of Islam maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities Book Review Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions intolerance and conflicts Dr Amna Afreen documents the political socio economic and religious causes limited government funding widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms John L Esposito University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim Christian Understanding Georgetown University A comparative study of elite English-medium schools, public schools, and Islamic madaris in contemporary Pakistan Akhtar Hassan Malik, 2015-04-12 This ethnographic study examines the role of differing school knowledge in reproducing various social classes in the society It was observed that an unequal availability of capital resources agents class habitus and the type of their cultural currency act as selection mechanisms that clearly favour some social groups over others The ruling classes ensure the transfer of their power and privilege to their children by providing them with quality education in elite schools The disadvantaged classes are excluded from these unique institutions by both social and economic sanctions They have no other option than to educate their children either in public schools or Islamic madaris As a result inequitable educational opportunities consolidate the existing social class hierarchy Punjab Government Gazette Punjab (India), 1964-10 Secondary School English Education in Asia Bernard Spolsky, Kiwan Sung, 2015-03-27 Continuing on from the previously published Primary School English Language Education in Asia From Policy to Practice Moon Spolsky 2012 this book compiles the proceedings which took place at the 2011 annual conference of AsiaTEFL which took place in Seoul Korea It surveys the current status practices challenges and future directions of Secondary English education in 11 diverse countries in Israel Japan Korea Singapore Bangladesh India Indonesia Malaysia Pakistan Vietnam and China Given the importance of secondary English education as the central feature for continuing development of target language and culture in English language teaching in Asia each contributed chapter includes key policies theories and practices related to the development and implementation of country specific curricular and instructional programs in secondary English educational contexts in these countries Secondary School English Education in Asia From Policy to Practice critically analyses both sides of the English language debate from advantages to complications in its chapters including Educating for the 21st Century The Singapore Experience Miles to Go Secondary Level English Language Education in India English Language Education Innovation for the Vietnamese Secondary School The Project 2020 Exploring the Value of ELT as a Secondary School Subject in China A Multi goal Model for English Curriculum Secondary School English Education in Asia will appeal to English Language Teaching ELT researchers teacher educators trainee teachers and teachers primarily those teaching in Asia World Yearbook of Education 2011 Lyn Yates, Madeleine Grumet, 2011-02-01 How do curriculum conceptions of knowledge and the schooling experiences of young people engage the great issues of this tumultuous time Curriculum is always influenced by the events that shape our world but when testing and bench marking preoccupy us we can forget the world that is both the foundation and the object of curriculum This edited volume brings together international contributors to analyze and reflect on the way the events of the last decade have influenced the curriculum in their countries As they address nationalism in the face of economic globalisation the international financial crisis immigration and the culture of diaspora they ask how national loyalties are balanced with international relationships and interests They ask how the rights of women and of ethnic and racial groups are represented They ask what has changed about history and civics post 9 11 and they ask how countries that have experienced profound political and economic changes have addressed them in curriculum These interactions and changes are a subject of particular interest for an international yearbook in that they are almost always permeated by global movements and influenced by multinational bodies and practices And as these essays show in curriculum global and international issues are explicitly or implicitly also about local and national interests and about how citizens engage their rights and responsibilities This volume brings together a new approach to perspectives on curriculum today and a new collection of insights into the changes from different parts of the world which discuss How is the world represented in curriculum How do responses to world events shape the stories we tell students about who they are and can be This book will be of great benefit to educational researchers and policy makers as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students
