Charles Horton Cooley, the self is not dependent on biological predispositions; rather, it is a product of social interaction. One of the pioneering contributions to sociological perspectives was Charles Cooley (1864-1929). He asserted that people's self-understanding is constructed, in part, by their perception of how others view them – a process term "the looking glass self". Sociologist Charles Horton Cooley introduced the looking-glass self to highlight that the people whom a person interacts become a mirror in which he views himself. The looking Glass Self (Cooley, 1902)	Students will give their insights about sociological perspective of self.
