Personel Management N4 2013 Question Paper:

The Report: Nigeria 2015 Oxford Business Group, 2015-05-05 Despite concerns linked to short term and cyclical risks including unequal development policy uncertainty declining oil prices and localised unrest the longer term growth fundamentals are clear. Following the presidential elections in March 2015 the newly elected government of President Muhammadu Buhari will face a host of challenges ranging from high levels of rural poverty to concerns over governance and an insurgency in the north. The outcome of the presidential elections gave Nigeria its first peaceful handover of power in more than 16 years as well as a boost of momentum that along with its economic fundamentals places it on the cusp of potentially long term broad based growth. China and the Internet Song Shi, 2023-12-15 Two oversimplified narratives have long dominated news reports and academic studies of China's Internet one lauding its potentials to boost commerce the other bemoaning state control and measures against the forces of political transformations. This bifurcation obscures the complexity of the dynamic forces operating on the Chinese Internet and the diversity of Internet related phenomena. China and the Internet analyzes how Chinese activists NGOs and government offices have used the Internet to fight rural malnutrition the digital divide the COVID 19 pandemic and other urgent problems affecting millions of people. It presents five theoretically informed case studies of how new media have been used in interventions for development and social change including how activists battled against COVID 19. In addition this book applies a Communication for Development approach to examine the use and impact of China's Internet. Although it is widely used internationally in Internet studies Communication for Development has not been rigorously applied in studies of China's Internet. This approach offers a new perspective to examine the Internet and related phenomena in Chinese society. Resources in Education, 1995

Innovation and Social Capital in Organizational Ecosystems Thomas, Brychan Celfyn, Murphy, Lyndon John, 2019-03-19 Social capital as a concept is a comparatively recent addition to the regional economic and innovation literature. Facets of social capital are generally acknowledged to include trust collaboration cooperation bridging and bonding social network ties and reciprocity. Nevertheless forms of social capital such as bonding and bridging social capital are less frequently explored in the literature. Innovation and Social Capital in Organizational Ecosystems breaks down the concept of innovation into its main components which represent a spectrum of innovation activity from technology based innovation to hidden and social innovation in order to support executives concerned with innovation and social capital in different work communities and environments. Highlighting a range of topics including regional development social innovation network capital and more this book is ideally designed for researchers professionals students policymakers and practitioners. Current Index to Journals in Education, 1991 Routledge Handbook of Democratization in Africa Gabrielle Lynch, Peter VonDoepp, 2019-07-02 This volume explores the issues and debates surrounding the ongoing processes of democratization in sub Saharan Africa illuminating the central dynamics characterizing Africa's democratic experiments and considering the connections between democratization and economic social and cultural developments on the continent Reflecting the diverse and rich nature of this field of study the Handbook of Democratization in Africa features more than thirty contributions structured into six thematic sections The politics and paths of regime development Institutional dynamics Political mobilization and voting dynamics The politics of identity Social forces from below The consequences of democracy Chapters offer overviews of the key scholarship on particular topics including central insights from the latest research and provide suggestions for those interested in further inquiry The material includes attention to broad cross continental patterns for example with respect to public opinion political violence or the role of different institutions and actors It also includes rich case material drawing on and highlighting the experiences of a diverse collection of countries Encouraging a comprehensive view of key concerns and enhancing understanding of particular issues the Handbook of Democratization in Africa represents a critical resource for experts and students of African politics democratization and African studies Personnel Management Louise Luttig,1997 Resilience in the Pacific and the Caribbean Simon Hollis,2020-10-26 This book critically examines the global diffusion and local reception of resilience through the implementation of Disaster Risk Reduction DRR programmes in Pacific and Caribbean island states Global efforts to strengthen local disaster resilience capacities have become a staple of international development activity in recent decades yet the successful implementation of DRR projects designed to strengthen local resilience remains elusive While there are pockets of success a gap remains between global expectations and local realities Through a critical realist study of global and local worldviews of resilience in the Pacific and Caribbean islands this book argues that the global advocacy of DRR remains inadequate because of a failure to prioritise a person orientated ethics in its conceptualization of disaster resilience This regional comparison provides a valuable lens to understand the underlying social structures that makes resilience possible and the extent to which local governments communities and persons interpret and modify their behaviour on risk when faced with the global message on resilience This book will be of much interest to students of resilience risk management development studies and area studies Yearbook of International Organizations ,2011 Edition for 1983 84 published in 3 vols vol 1 Organization descriptions and index vol 2 International organization participation vol 3 Global action networks University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System).
