Broken Altars Thomas Albert Howard, 2025-03-25 A sweeping history of the violence perpetrated by governments committed to extreme forms of secularism in the twentieth century A popular truism derived from the Enlightenment holds that violence is somehow inherent to religion to which political secularism offers a liberating solution But this assumption ignores a glaring modern reality that putatively progressive regimes committed to secularism have possessed just as much and often a vastly greater capacity for violence as those tied to a religious identity In Broken Altars Thomas Albert Howard presents a powerful account of the misery deaths and destruction visited on religious communities by secularist regimes in the twentieth century Presenting three principal forms of modern secularism that have arisen since the Enlightenment passive secularism combative secularism and eliminationist secularism Howard argues that the latter two have been especially violence prone Westerners do not fully grasp this however because they often mistake the first form passive secularism for secularism as a whole But a disconcertingly more complicated picture emerges with the adoption of a broader global vision Admitting different species of secularism greater historical perspective and case studies drawn from the former Soviet Union Turkey Mexico Spain Czechoslovakia Albania Mongolia and China among other countries Howard calls into question the conventional tale of modernity as the pacifying triumph of secularism over a benighted religious past

Alternative Globalizations James Mark,Artemy M. Kalinovsky,Steffi Marung,2020-02-11 Globalization has become synonymous with the seemingly unfettered spread of capitalist multinationals but this focus on the West and western economies ignores the wide variety of globalizing projects that sprang up in the socialist world as a consequence of the end of the European empires This collection is the first to explore alternative forms of globalization across the socialist world during the Cold War Gathering the work of established and upcoming scholars of the Soviet Union Eastern Europe and China Alternative Globalizations addresses the new relationships and interconnections which emerged between a decolonizing world in the postwar period and an increasingly internationalist eastern bloc after the death of Stalin In many cases the legacies of these former globalizing impulses from the socialist world still exist today Divided into four sections the works gathered examine the economic political developmental and cultural aspects of this exchange In doing so the authors break new ground in exploring this understudied history of globalization and provide a multifaceted study of an increasing postwar interconnectedness across a socialist world
